CHURCH UNDER WRAPS

The First Church of Christ, Scientist at 1618 Fifth Avenue, San Rafael, was completely shrouded in rubberized nylon tarpaulins yesterday by Williams Termite Control preparatory to releasing fumigating gas to kill termites. Today, the wraps were taken off (right) and blowers turned on inside the building to clear away the gas. Charles Williams, termite control operator, said the church would be entirely safe to enter tomorrow. (Independent-Journal photos)

Administrator Voted, 3-2, In Fairfax

Two Councilmen Want Another Man For Position

By GILES BIXLER

Fairfax City Council voted 3-2 last night to hire David J. Sumbardo, assistant city manager of South San Francisco, as the first city administrator of Fairfax at a salary of $905 a month.

The two opposing votes were by Mayor Cornelis Van Vliet and Councilman Peter R. Arrigoni Jr., who said they wanted City Engineer Richard J. Nelson for the job.

The decision followed a half-hour closed session called after two hours of public discussion, during which Arrigoni and the mayor, who voted Dec. 28 to create the city administrator job, seemed to have second thoughts about the idea.

TRIAL SUGGESTED

Both leaned toward a proposal by former Mayor W. E. Radtke of 214 Marinda Drive and Gordon B. Adams of 475 Cascade Drive that the jobs of city engineer and city administrator be combined and given to Nelson on a six month trial basis.

Councilman Robert R. Souza, who emerged as the majority spokesman, asked Barry W. Rogers of 25 Manzanita Road, who spoke in favor of Nelson: "Would you run your business on a trial basis?"

Councilman Frank L. Lawrence echoed: "Would you take a $350,000 annual budget and give it to a brilliant engineer to play around with and experiment for six months?"

He later apologized for using the phrase "play around."

'MY APPENDIX'

The third member of the majority, Councilman George A. Pagni, said bluntly, "I wouldn't call a mechanic to take out my appendix."

Radtke presented figures to show that the new job will cost the city more than $9,000 a year.

He estimated the administrator's salary at $12,000, salary of a clerk to assist him, $4,800, added payments to retirement fund, $900, and insurance costs, $700. This totals $18,400, from which he subtracted the $9,156 salary of retiring City Clerk Alice Leonesio, to arrive at $9,244.

"This is almost enough to pay for a new civic center for Fairfax over the next 20 years," he declared.

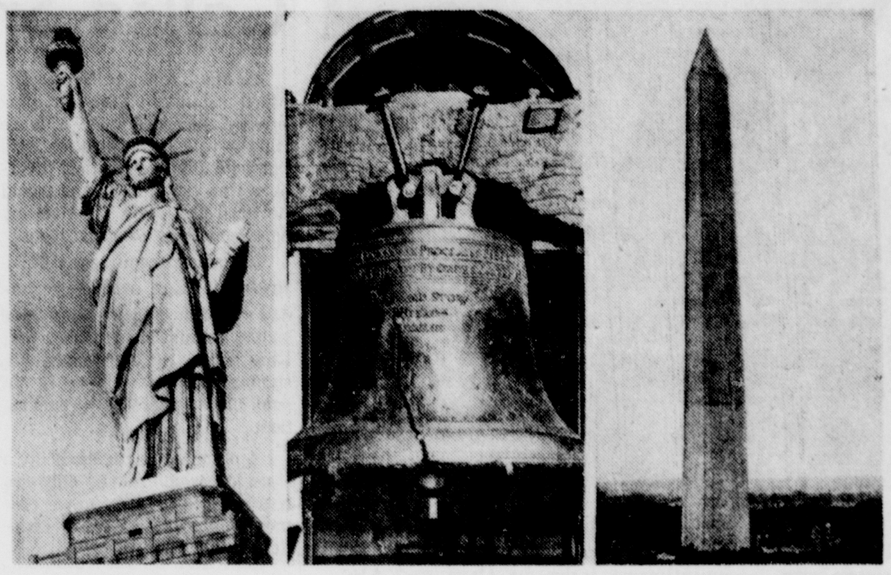

Souza countered that the idea of a fulltime city engineer originated during Radtke's administration as mayor.

"How can he do his job if he's going to be doing the job of administrator, too?" asked Souza. He also charged Radtke's figures were padded, and claimed the new job would add only

Washington Monument Bomb Try Is Thwarted

Liberty Bell Also Target

TARGETS — FBI agents and New York City police today seized three men and a woman in New York, and charged them with plotting to dynamite the Statue of Liberty (left), and Liberty Bell (center) and the Washington Monument. The Liberty Bell is in Philadelphia. (UPI Telephotos)

NEW YORK (AP) — Federal agents arrested three men and a woman today on charges of conspiring to blow up the Washington Monument, the Statue of Liberty and the Liberty Bell.

The agents said a cache of explosives had been found in the Bronx.

A quiet street in the Riverdale section of the Bronx was turned into a scene of feverish activity by Federal Bureau of Investigation agents and city police.

DIPLOMAT AREA

A number of United Nations diplomats live in the Riverdale section, which has private homes and luxury apartments.

Police barred pedestrians and vehicular traffic from the immediate area.

More than 75 uniformed police and detectives were assigned to the vicinity.

Residents of the area said they had seen policemen assigned to rooftops and other spots in the area earlier in the day.

PARKING LOT

They said a light blue automobile that might have contained explosives seemed to be the focal point of attention. Police backed the car, bearing New York license plates, to a parking lot.

The car was found in front of 600 W. 239th Street, just east of Blackstone Avenue, in front of the Beverly Hills Apartment house.

Agents said those arrested were three Negro men and a white woman from Canada.

FBI Director J. Edgar Hoover said agents cooperating with New York City police seized a quantity of dynamite and blasting caps buried in a lot in the Bronx. He said the cache was a portion of the explosives being accumulated by the conspirators as part of their plot.

Those arrested were Robert S. Collier, 28; Walter A. Bowe, 32; Khaleel S. Sayyed, 22 and Michelle Luclos, 28.

Hoover said the four were charged with conspiring to destroy government property — specifically the Statue of Liberty in New York harbor, the Washington Monument near the White House in Washington, and the Liberty Bell in Philadelphia's Independence Hall. Conviction could carry a maximum penalty of 10 years in prison and a $10,000 fine.

McInnis Draft Under Way As Paul Bettini Announces

C. Paul Bettini, president of the San Rafael Board of Education, today announced his candidacy for mayor, as a "draft McInnis" movement was started on behalf of the incumbent.

Mayor John F. McInnis has said he will not seek re-election, but yesterday seven citizens took out petitions to place McInnis's name on the April 12 ballit, according to City Clerk W. Clifford Cornwell.

No candidate's papers have yet been issued to Bettini nor any of his supporters, Cornwell said today.

Councilman Louis H. Baar was issued nomination petitions for re-election yesterday; Councilman Harry A. Barbier took out his papers earlier.

Cornwell said forms for appointment of verification deputies have been issued to Robert F. Loberg, president of the Terra Linda Valley Property Owners Assn., but have not yet been returned. Loberg plans to run for city council.

Until nomination papers are filed as completed, it is not necessarily known whether the canidate seeks the mayor's post, a council seat, or a board of education job. The filing period does not open until Feb. 26; it closes March 12.

Clifford S. Lund has obtained deputy verification forms in behalf of Lewrence Kramer Jr. for the San Rafael Board of Education, Lund confirmed today. He said he will obtain the nomination petitions as soon as one more verification deputy has signed up.

Kramer, of 558 Heather Drive, is chairman of the Dixie School District board, and a management consultant in San Francisco.

Papers to run for the education board were taken out Thursday in behalf of Walter R. Castro Jr., auto dealer of 313 Summitt Avenue.

Mayorality candidate Bettini has been president of the board of education for six of the last 10 years. He is a director and past president of the marin County Insurance Agents Assn., vice president of the San Rafael Kiwanis Club, a member of the American Legion and Elks Lodge, and active with Little League, Pony League and Boy Scouts,

He and his wife, Margaret, and four sons live at 23 Chestnut Avenue.

Heading the group seeking to draft McInnis is Robert D. Ritter of 916 Del Ganado Road, president of the San Rafael Chamber of Commerce.

Appointive City Clerk Eyed For April Ballot

By BRYCE W. ANDERSON

A proposal to make the city clerk appointive may be on the April 12 municipal ballot in San Rafael.

City Councilman Charles W. Aby last night proposed the measure be put to the electorate, citing that duties of the city clerk have been reduced through hiring of a finance officer since retirement of W. L. Morgan, who served in the dual capacity of clerk and finance officer.

There was no discussion of the proposal, but City Atty. David Menary Jr. was instructed to have a charter amendment ready for city council consideration March 1—the last meeting at which it will be possible to add measures to the ballot.

The council last night approved putting on the ballot a charter amendment transferring accounting and financial duties of the city clerk to the director of finance.

Orrin Wendling was hired as finance director on Morgan's retirement Dec. 15, but is serving as a deputy to City Clerk W. C. Cornwell pending adoption of the charter change divesting the clerk of responsibility for financial matters.

If San Rafael voters approve making the city clerk appointive, the county seat will be following a well-defined trend among the cities of Marin County.

In recent years, Mill Valley, Larkspur and Sausalito have all voted to make city clerks appointive. Marin's two newest cities, Novato and Tiburon, made the city clerk position appointive on incorporation.

A measure asking public approval of the city's building housing for the elderly also may be on the April ballot.

Aby reminded the city attorney that he had said voter ap-

Supervisors Enlarge 4th District

The Marin County Board of Supervisors further enlarged Supervisor Thomas T. Storer's Fourth District at a special redistricting hearing last night.

The change was the only one made to a redistricting pattern adopted Dec. 1 which extended the Fourth District from ocean to bay, cutting through Larkspur, Corte Madera and San Rafael.

Storer himself moved that all of the Tomales High School District within Marin County be included in his district. The motion and unanimous board approval followed a plea by Marshall area residents that their precinct not be split between the Fourth and Fifth districts, as was done in the redistricting adopted Dec. 1.

The change will not take effect until June 30, to prevent complications in upcoming school district elections, County Counsel Douglas J. Maloney said.

Although a major one in terms of area, the district shift involves only 500 population, less than three-tenths of one per cent of the county total.

Supervisors turned down a San Geronimo Valley plea for redistricting, debated desirability of a county charter to solve districting and other problems, and reviewed a proposal that would give Storer all of the coastal and recreation area, but none of the San Geronimo, Larkspur, Corte Madera, San

Unification Hearing Audience Is Divided

By ELLEN BRY

More than 200 persons fervently applauded one speaker after another last night as they expressed varied views on Tamalpais School District unification before the County Committee on School District Organization.

The audience in the Redwood High School library appeared almost equally divided between the one-district and two-district plans for the area of Tamalpais High School District. It now includes 11 school districts.

One plan would unify all elementary school districts and the present Tamalapais High School District into one school district with one board of trustees governing for kindergarten through high school.

The other would make two unified districts. In one would be included Nicasio, Lagunitas, Fairfax, San Anselmo, Bolinas-Stinson, Mill Valley and Sausalito elementary districts, with Sir Francis Drake and Tamalpais high schools within its boundaries, all governed by one newly elected school board. In the other district would be Kentfield, Ross, Larkspur, Reed elementary districts with Redwood High School within its boundaries, forming another unified district with one newly elected governing board.

As television cameras whirred, members of the county committee listened for three hours as the audience put forth opinions during an official hearing on each of the plans. Portions of the hearing will be shown as part of a KPIX program next month.

A second set of hearings is set for 8 p.m. tomorrow at Tamalpais High School. Meeting immediately afterwards the county committee is expected to come to a decision for one plan. This plan then would be submitted to the State Board of Education where it would have to gain approval before an election could be held.

A proposal to unify the entire Tam area into one district lost by a narrow margin at the polls last June. A proposed three-way unification was turned down by the State Board of Education.

Last night board members of the Reed and Ross district asked

Navy Divers Die In Fire

WASHINGTON (AP) — Two veteran Navy deep-sea divers were killed and two others injured today by a flash fire inside a decompression chamber during an experiment at the Washington Navy Yard.

The accident occurred in the experimental diving unit of the deep sea diving school.

Lt. Victor Evans said the divers, enlisted men with experience in the field, had been in a diving tank under simulated pressure of 250 feet for two hours.

Evans described the fire as of unknown origin.

U.S. Puts Winged Satellite Into Orbit To Measure Dust

CAPE KENNEDY (UPI) — A mighty Saturn-1 super rocket today orbited a bat-like "space duster" satellite with giant wings to measure the hazards tiny meteoroids pose to moonships.

The 188-foot booster, America's most powerful, thundered into the sky at 9:37 a.m. EST in the opener of a two-part nationally televised space spectacular to be followed tomorrow by a Ranger moonshot.

About 11 minutes after the fiery blastoff, space agency spokesmen said Saturn-1 had scored its eighth straight success by propelling the heaviest U.S. scientific satellite into orbit.

The spacecraft, named Pegasus after the winger horse of mythology, emerged from the protective cover of a dummy apollo mooncraft three minutes later.

Its 96 feet wide wings unfolded like an expanding accordion under the watchful eye of a television camera and began its sweep for tiny bits of cosmic debris whizzing about space.

"We consider that we have the Pegasus meteoroid satellite in orbit," the spokesman said.

He said the Saturn's performance was "excellent."

Pegasus, so big it will look like a bright twinkling star at night, weighs 23,000 pounds with the Saturn's second stage attached for stability. Its 10,000 pound Apollo cover was kicked into a separate orbit.

By reporting every hit made by a piece of space dust, Pegasus was expected to tell scientists how much protective schielding large space ships will need — particularly Apollo moon ships.

Most CHP Officers Will Be Armed With Shotguns

SACRAMENTO (AP) — California is arming most of its 3,000 uniformed highway patrolmen with shotguns as protection against what one state official calls the public's changing attitude toward law enforcement agencies.

The patrolmen have been ordered to shoot to kill, if necessary.

Patrol Commissioner Bradford Crittenden said the need for the additional protection has been growing steadily, "particularly in the number of attacks on our patrolmen."

In the past two years two patrolmen have been slain and 78 others assaulted.

Crittenden, a former district attorney, said criminals will be less likely to attack an officer who is armed with a weapon as deadly as the shotgun.

The 12 gauge shotguns will use shells containing the largest buckshot available.

Russi McComb, information officer for the patrol, said the discharge would almost cut a man in half when fired at close range.

"Our officers have been instructed," McComb said, "to use this weapon only against felons and only in extreme cases. You don't use this shotgun to frighten or to warn. When it is fired it means death. It is to be fired with that thought in mind."

Crittenden then said, "The changing attitude of our citizens is making the enforcement of law a more difficult task each day.

"The criminals challenge our patrolmen. Citizens are inclined to stand by and watch attacks without offering any aid to the patrolmen."

As an example, Crittenden recalled a patrolman who attempted to arrest two drunken drivers recently. Suddenly the men leaped upon the officer and beat him to the pavement.

"A number of people watched the attack," Crittenden said. "No one offered aid."

The commissioner also said jurors once considered the testimony "of a highway patrolman or an FBI agent as the most reliable possible. Now jurors are waiting and making the officer prove his statement without a shadow of a doubt."

A prominent California defense attorney and a Sacramento County Superior Court judge agreed in part with Crittenden.

Attorney Nathaniel Colley said, "Jurors still put faith in the testimony of any police officer, but now realize that when an officer shows inconsistency or lack of ability to remember, his testimony is open to question.

Judge Irving Perluss put it this way:

"Jurors now consider the testimony of a patrolman in the same light as any other witness and this is as it should be. A patrolman can have a failure of recollection the same as a lay witness. I also must add that in my experience no law officer ever has deliberately misstated the facts."

Crittenden, whose men patrol 80,000 miles of highways, said much of the changing attitude can be laid at the feet of the Supreme Court of the United States.

"Many of their decisions in the past," the commissioner added, "have hurt the effectiveness and the image of the law officer.

"When the high court says we're not abiding by the constitution, we, the law officers, are judged by the people to be lawless."

Crittenden's statement was attacked by Colley, who said:

"In our society a system of checks and balances is necessary and that is what the Supreme Court is attempting to do. Some restraint must be placed on law enforcement agencies which have gone overboard in not protecting all the rights of citizens.

"Better that 100 guilty men go free," Colley said, "than one innocent man be convicted."

Perluss took a middle-of-the-road stand.

Vote Registration Called Snail-Like

SELMA, Ala. (AP) — Dr. Martin Luther King Jr. expressed pleasure over a large right-to-vote demonstration here but said the registration procedure was "snail-like" and would be until the state of Alabama does something to speed it up.

"It was a magnificent demonstration," King said of yesterday's march of more than 2,000 on the country courthouse. But, King said, the procedure for signing up new voters is "a snail-like pattern of registration.

He objected particularly to a state law which sets up only two regular registration days permonth in most Alabama counties.

In another development at Selma, Negro comedian Dick Gregory and seven other persons were arrested early today after an argument over reservations at the Holiday Inn motel.

Gregory, who spoke to a Negro rally last night, and one of the others in the group had reserved three rooms, motel manager Harold Sewell said, but the rooms had not been guaranteed. Sewell said the motel held the rooms until 8 p.m., but Gregory had not appeared.

Gregory and his group appeared after midnight and an argument followed.

City police arrested the group on warrants sworn out by Sewell. They were charged with disorderly conduct.

U.S. Uneasy Over Idea Of Steel Strike

WASHINGTON (AP) — With most longshoremen back on the job, federal officials are bracing themselves for the next potential labor explosion — in the steel industry.

While no one is predicting a steel strike, or even whether overt government intervention will be needed, the Labor Department is clearly uneasy over the possibilities.

Spokesmen insist, however, that beside the dock strike and possible steel troubles, prospects are for a generally peaceful year at the bargaining table even though about one-third of all union contracts — covering about 5 million workers — are up for renwal.

While some longshoremen are still on strike, most major ports are back in operation.

The most immediately worrisome aspect of the steel talks is the uncertainty over the election contest for president of the million-member AFL-CIO United Steelworkers of America.

"Nobody will be able to do a thing until we know who the leader is," said one government spokesman, referring to the contest between President David J. McDonald and Secretary-Treasurer I. W. Abel, for the presidency of the Steelworkers Union.

Abel has claimed victory, but official ballots are still being tabulated. McDonald forces are talking about a court fight if their man is declared the loser.

The union's talks with the steel industry were recessed pending the outcome of the election and several weeks of bargaining time already have been lost. Steel contracts expire May 1.

While rejecting predictions of widespread labor strife the rest of the year, some Labor Department officials concede that any of the major contract talks could erupt unexpectedly.

New Cut In Uranium Fuels Production Gets Approval

WASHINGTON (UPI) — The Atomic Energy Commission (AEC) has announced that President Johnson has approved a new cut in the production of uranium fuels and explosives for nuclear power plants and weapons.

The curtailment, announced yesterday, will start in the middle of next year and continue until 1969. The AEC said it was based on a reassessment of the production rate needed to meet anticipated military and civilian power needs.

The new reduction brings the total cutback in such production to 60 per cent when added to the 40 per cent cut in uranium production announced last year. Last year the AEC also announced a 20 per cent decrease in the production of plutonium 239, another atomic fuel and explosive.

Negro Life Of Terror Outlined In Report

JACKSON, Miss. (AP) — The state advisory committee to the U.S. Civil Rights Commission said today that police brutality, economic pressures and night riders have forced Mississippi Negroes to accept an inferior station or live in terror.

The biracial committee's charges were presented in a report to the commission, which began public hearings today on the racial situation in Mississippi.

The report, presented by Dr. A. B. Britton Jr., a Jackson Negro physician and committee chairman, noted what it termed progress in recent months.

This included free registration of Negroes as voters in some counties, desegregation of many public accommodations, testimony from officials of Greenville and Gulfport before the committee and statements from various business and civic groups urging compliance with the Civil Rights Act.

Most of the 19-page report reviewed complaints and testimony received by the 10-member committee over the past year.

The group — which includes three Negroes—reported many were reluctant to testify for fear of reprisal.

In one instance, the report said, the home of a former McComb policeman was bombed hours after he testified.

The report said committee members themselves had been victims of both economic and social pressures, and, in at least one instance, a member had been forced to leave the state.

The committee reported "law enforcement officials," as well as private citizens, have actively thwarted efforts of individuals and groups to register to vote in a number of counties.

"Witnesses from several southwest Mississippi counties reported that crosses had been burned in their yards."

The committee reported witness testimony of a kidnaping and beating, a store bombing, and a shooting at a home.

"Under color of law, voter registration workers have been stopped on roads and highways and subjected to cursings, insults and physical beatings," the report said.

The report said at Canton, "witnesses reported that police continually harassed persons attending voter registration rallies" and that officers in the area had beaten and arrested some participants.

Hub Lot Split Gets Approval

Myrtle L. Coughlin last night received San Anselmo Planning Commission permission to split a lot at 20 Vine Avenue into two parcels. The vote was 4-2 with commissioners Duane Ragan and John West opposed.

Opponents called for stricter application of the city slope policy to the lots, but the majority felt since the surrounding area was built up on similar small lots, approval would not hurt the neighborhood.

James F. Reed was granted a two-year renewable use permit to conduct an investments business from his home at 102 Spring Grove Avenue.

The commission referred back plans for a subdivision to Frank Cherne for more information. Commissioner Charles Leitzell was absent.

Brown Asks 2nd Crossing

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—Gov. Brown says the San Francisco Bay Area's population explosion has made it necessary to immediately choose a route for a second bay crossing.

He adds that a second bridge to Marin County from San Francisco will be needed very soon.

Brown took a 45 minute helicopter tour of possible bridge routes Monday.

The governor had no comment when asked if he had a personal choice for the second bay crossing route.

"The Toll Bridge Authority's choice should be guided by the San Francisco Board of Supervisors and by Bay Area assemblymen," Brown said.

'FLYING' OVER THE ICE

Normally ice skaters are the only ones seen gliding across ice covered city park lagoon in Chicago, but yesterday this young fellow was found whizzing across the ice in a "flying saucer" towed by a spirited German shepherd.

Brown Tells Proposal To Buy Redwoods

SACRAMENTO (AP) — Completion of a master plan calling for state acquisition of 45,000 acres of redwood forests and adjacent lands was announced today by Gov. Brown.

The governor told a news conference the plan calls for purchase of 6,544 arces of primeval redwood forests in Humboldt and Del Norte counties plus an additional 38,510 acres of cutover forest lands adjacent to the redwoods.

Brown said the plan also supports a proposal to re-route a controversial four-lane freeway along a cut-over section east of Prairie Creek Redwood State Park, instead of through the park.

STRONG SUPPORT

The re-routing has strong support from conservationist groups but is opposed by the State Division of Highways and local government.

Brown said he was confident a compromise plan for re-routing the freeway could be worked out with the highway commission.

The completed master plan, said Brown, would add 6,577 new camps sites, 3,013 picnic sites and 57 miles of additional parkways to existing facilities in state redwood parks.

FEDERAL PLANS

He said the proposed master plan would be tied in "as closely as possible" with federal plans to establish a mammoth national redwood park stretching from Del Norte to Mendocino counties.

"California's redwoods truly are among the natural wonders of the world," he said. "This master plan is a point of departure for a program to spare them from the saws and axes of loggers."

Brown said the plan also calls for private interests to manage another 35,000 acres of redwood forests "in a way that would hold damages to adjacent park lands to a minimum.

Brown said the master plan would be presented to the State Park Commission at its meeting Friday.

Audience Divided On Unification

the county committee to defer action until bills now in the state Legislature could be considered and so possibly change unification laws. The Kentfield School District board came out in favor of unification of the present Redwood High School attendance area.

Mill Valley, San Anselmo, Larkspur and Fairfax school boards favored one district unification or opposed the two-district setup under consideration.

The League of Women Voters of Central and Southern Marin spoke out for one-district unification.

Representatives of Westminster Presbyterian Church in Tiburon, San Geronimo Presbyterian Church, Park School Parent-Teachers Assn. in Mill Valley, Tamalpais High School Parent-Teacher Assn. and San Anselmo Elementary Teachers Assn. asked approval of the one-district plan.

Some of the comments:

Lawrence Goldberg, a member of the Kentfield board said he was a minority on his board, asked no delay for possible law changes and said in his opinion the State Board of Education never would approve the two-district plan.

Leo Souza of Tiburon, chairman of the committee for Tamalpais three-district unification, urged the county committee to hold off until the legislature makes a decision on pending bills.

Mrs. Fay Jensen of the Fairfax board said the two-way plan would serve "no purpose except possibly to rip the bowels from the Tam District."

Mrs. Alyce Farkas of the Reed board said the high school area "cannot swallow all the elementary school district without a severe case of indigestion."

Douglas Ballinger, Kentfield, said he had voted against one-district unification before but now would vote for it "to give every child a better break."

Curtis P. Kamai, who said he was the minority member of the Larkspur school board on the unification issue, said he still favors a three-district plan.

Mrs. Marilyn C. Steinau of the Reed board, the only member of her board favoring unification of the entire Tam area into one district, said "many of the voters last June didn't know what they were voting on and this plan should be submitted again." She gained one of the biggest rounds of applause for the evening.

Another Reed board member, David D. Ring, who is on the county committee, seemed to equal her in gaining audience applause when he gave a tongue lashing to state unification laws and procedures.

Dr. Richard S. Hahn of Belvedere said he was reasonably certain" the county human rights commission, of which he is a member, would oppose the two-district plan as it had opposed the three-district proposal.

Mrs. Thomas H. Newton, Kentfield, a substitute teacher, said, "You have local control only when you exercise it." She asked who in the audience could name all members of the local school board and who had attended a school board meeting in the past six months. "What goes on in the community next to us affects us—we can't be isolationists," she said in favoring unification into one district.

Police Probe $500 Theft From Safe

San Rafael police today were investigating the reported theft of $500 to $600 from the safe at Club Moderne, 804 Fourth Street, and two thefts from boats moored at San Rafael harbors.

Police said Nat H. Livingston of El Sobrante, co-owner of the downtown club, said he went there at 2 p.m. yesterday to pick up the previous night's receipts for deposit in the bank. He said he found padlocks broken open on the front door and the door to the back room. The safe, there, he said, stood open.

Reported missing along with the money were six cases of whisky and several other bottles of liquor. Officers said they found no evidence that the safe had been peeled or damaged in any way.

Also reported yesterday were thefts of $109 worth of items from a houseboat and a $40 chrome siren from a sport fishing boat.

Guinevere Joan Von Buchald said her unlocked houseboat, the Labruqa, was entered between 10:30 a.m. and 3 p.m. yesterday. Taken, she said, were a camera, a table radio, an electric heater and an alarm clock.

John W. Grupe of 78 Novato Street, Apt. 1, reported theft of the siren from his boat, moored at the Canal Boat Service on the San Rafael Canal.

Another theft reported yesterday was that of a $175 television set and a coat with a wallet containing $20 to $30 from a room at the Bermuda Palms Motel, 737 Francisco Boulevard.

Georgianna Swanson of 107 Antonette Drive, San Rafael, said the items were taken while she was asleep in the room.

Town Hall Plan Seen; Cost $65,000

Corte Madera Town Mgr. Arthur H. Brandow last night laid out preliminary plans for converting the firehouse into a town hall, then startled the town council with an estimate that it will cost $65,000.

"We'll need another bond issue," cried Councilman Norman R. Barnett.

Brandow said that the plans, by Crawford and Banning, were actually for "ultimate" development, in about 10 years.

But major costs will have to be met early, he said, including a new heating system, new plumbing and sewer connection, and new electrical wiring.

The building will become available for town offices when the police and fire departments move into the public safety building, on which site work is to start this week.

The building, which includes the council's meeting room, was acquired years ago from the volunteer fire department. Most of the town offices are located in a house next door, called the "town hall annex."

The council approved sale of $200,000 worth of bonds for construction of the public safety building and a firehouse to the Bank of California, lowest of five bidders with an average interest rate of 3.4239 per cent and total interest cost of $104,257.50.

The council also agreed to hire the architectural firm of Wagstaff and McDonald to design the new firehouse.

Harold B. Wagstaff of the firm is on the town planning commission, but Councilman Charles F. Pendleton said he had been assured by Town Atty. Sherrod S. Davis there would be no conflict of interest problem.

Included in the town hall plan was space in the basement for offices of the Corte Madera Sanitary District.

The council agreed to send the plans to the sanitary district for comments, but made it clear there was no approval of them yet.

Planners Set Zone Hearing

The Marin County Planning Commission yesterday set for March 15 hearing on a proposed zoning ordinance amendment that would regulate residential uses in commercial and industrial districts.

The proposed changes would prohibit residences in industrial areas and control residential uses in commercial districts.

Attorney E. Warren McGuire contended the change would constitute rezoning and urged further study of the proposal.

Family Frightened

Sharon M. Chase of 238 C Street, San Rafael, complained to police last night that someone frightened her and other members of her family from their living room by firing a B-B or pellet gun at a sliding glass door as they watched television. A hole was shot through the glass, she said.

Corte Madera Asks Vote Combined On Rec, Schools

Request for combination, but not consolidation, of the Corte Madera recreation tax election with school elections April 20 was sent last night by the Corte Madera Town Council to county school officials.

Town Mgr. Arthur H. Brandow explained to the council that consolidation would require new precincts in some areas because town and school district boundaries do not coincide. With combination, town officials will have to gather returns from precincts for the town election.

In either case, he explained, the election will be held at polling places used for school elections, but different ballot boxes will be used under the proposed system.

He said the only complication now is that one polling place, at the Larkspur-Corte Madera School, is outside the town. Town Atty. Sherrod S. Davis said the location was not important.

The election issue is whether the town should limit a special recreation tax to six cents per $100 assessed valuation. The town can levy up to 20 cents for this purpose under state law.

The council heard a request by H. D. Lowe, new general manager of Clear View Cable Systems, Inc., for a franchise to go into competition with Tele-Vue Systems of Marin, Inc., already granted a franchise by both Corte Madera and Larkspur for community television antenna service.

Mayor Edward W. Colthurst said he was opposed to having more than one cable system in the town. Noting that Clear View will put cable under ground, he said he would rather not have streets torn up.

Councilman Charles F. Pendleton agreed with the mayor, but Councilman Norman R. Barnett said he had always been in favor of competition. Councilman Albert E. Kogler said that if there were not enough business for two-systems, Clear View would not have applied.

A special study committee on antenna systems reported to the council in December that only one franchise should be granted, but gave no specific reason. Colthurst said members of that group should be questioned about reasons for the recommendation.

No action was taken on Clear View's request.

The Corte Madera Town Council Also:

1. Received a planning commission report approving city participation in purchase of 24 acres of tidelands.

2. Informally approved a suggestion by Brandow that the Marin Council of Mayors by-laws be changed so that county supervisors would have a standing invitation to attend meetings and speak, but have no vote. The City of Novato had asked for the change.

3. Overruled, 3-2, planning commission denial of a request by Yvonne K. Heiman to add two living units to a house at 15 Willow Avenue. Colthurst and Kogler voted "no."

4. Referred plans for channelization of Tamalpais Drive to the public works committee, and set a field trip for March 6.

5. Heard from Brandow that preparation of a small lot in Marin Estates for use as a preschoolers' playground would cost $572, and asked the Marin Estates Homeowners Assn. to come up with plans.

6. Called for an ordinance prohibiting parking on the north side of Redwood Avenue between Corte Madera and Edison avenues and about half way up the south side from Corte Madera Avenue.

7. Postponed discussion of proposed changes in the sign ordinance to March 1.

8. Denied a request by owner A. R. Larson for an addition to the Meadowsweet Motel, a nonconforming use in the town.

9. Discussed a needed walkway from the east end of Tamalpais Drive to the end of the Paradise Drive sidewalk at the Northwestern Pacific Railroad tracks, and heard Colthurst say he would start informal negotiations with the property owners east of the end of Tamalpais Drive for possible access.

10. Postponed discussion of flood control on Corte Madera Creek until March 1.

11. Agreed that the town hotel room use tax should go into effect March 15.

12. Approved contracting with the engineering firm of Bala and Strandgaard for plans for the next phase of construction on widening Paradise Drive, from the railroad tracks to Prince Royal Passage.

Underwater Plan Due Commission

Plans for development of 18 acres of underwater and dry land in downtown Tiburon will come before the city planning commission on March 1.

Commissioners agreed last night to consider plans of Tiburon Tidelands Co. after pleas by developer Robert Moor. The commission at a previous meeting had sent plans to a citizen advisory planning committee now being formed; Moor urged consideration sooner by the commission.

Letters from the Tiburon Peninsula Chamber of Commerce, Pearson Yachts and the Corinthian Yacht Club backed Moor's plea.

The company has designed a marina, restaurant and shops building, boat sales building, 12 town houses, hotel, office building and parking for 394 cars on the acreage on Paradise Drive.

School Trustee Fair After Heart Attack

Edmund J. Thomas Jr., 60, Tamalpais High School District trustee, was in fair condition today at Marin General Hospital today after suffering a heart attack in his home at 144 Pine Drive, San Anselmo, Sunday.

Dr. Chad H. Calland, his physician, said no visitors would be allowed for a few days.

Large Lot Control Plan Is Approved

Marin County planning commissioners yesterday approved a section of a proposed zoning ordinance amendment that would create large lot controls.

Commissioners agreed to a section of the amendment that would create residential districts of two, three, five and 10 acres for single-family homes.

They postponed until March 15 discussion on sections controlling density and creating a resort and commercial recreation district.

Planning Director B. D. Dobbs said the large lot controls would provide a tool through which master plans could be implemented.

Attorney Byran R. McCarthy said that once the controls are "put on the books," the commission could require someone to have one house on a 10-acre site. This in effect would be partial condemnation of land, he argued.

Attorney Robert W. Pendergrass asked why the present residential zoning classifications and planned community regulations weren't sufficient.

Family Center Work To Begin

Groundbreaking for Marin County's proposed Family Rehabilitation Center in Lucas Valley is scheduled for 9 a.m., tomorrow, Walter H. Busher, chief county probation officer, announced today.

Roy Ibach, chairman of the county juvenile justice commission, will officiate, with representatives of the board of supervisors and other county officers expected to attend.

The center, near the juvenile hall, will take about six months for construction.

San Rafael Police Recover Stolen Car

San Rafael police yesterday recovered a car stolen nearly four weeks ago in San Francisco.

Police said Anna M. Andrade of 636 Mission Avenue reported a 1964 Oldsmobile sedan had been parked near her home for two weeks. It bore plates registered to the Hertz Rent-a-Car agency, San Francisco. Police said the owner is Robert J. Re of San Francisco.

Board Further Enlarges Supervisor Storer's Area

Rafael and San Quentin precincts he now serves.

Mrs. Winifred C. Frederick spoke extensively as representative of the San Geronimo Valley Assn. and as proponent of a plan which would eliminate Storer's district from cutting its present swath from the Pacific to the San Francisco Bay. Under her proposal, she said, the Fourth District would comprise about 16 per cent of the county's population, rather than the nearly 19 per cent it does now, and would serve the "community of interest" considerations called for in state law and recent court rulings.

"I grant you, Supervisor Storer has a problem," said Board Chairman Peter H. Behr. "Anybody looking at his district would say, 'My God, how can anybody do that to him?'"

"No matter how redistricting may be accomplished . . . the rural population must become a minority. Their only protection must be in what Mr. Gnoss has said."

Supervisor William A. Gnoss earlier had drawn applause from the small audience when he declared that "we have to represent all the people . . . I'm just as concerned and interested in Mr. Behr's district as I am in Mr. Storer's district."

Storer, a strong critic of the redistricting before he took office, said, "I'm able to live with it so far. I don't like it."

Referring to proposals to elect supervisors at large (which would require a county charter or a change in state law), Storer said, "I will go on record now as saying that any bill to elect supervisors at large, I will absolutely oppose."

Storer, unsuccessfully moved that the whole redistricting problem be referred to the county administrator's office for six months' study. He was unable to obtain a second.

Chairman Behr agreed with Mrs. Frederick that a county charter might solve the problem.

"Speaking for myself," he said, "the end point is what I hope would be the City and County of Marin."

John A. Miskimen of 4 Anchorage Court, San Rafael, demanded to know why the board couldn't "smooth out" district lines and eliminate splitting San Rafael, Larkspur and other cities. Mrs. Jane Fairchild of San Rafael also questioned splitting the city.

Attorney Dennis Day of San Anselmo countered that "I happen to feel the board did a pretty good job in redistricting."

Youth Charged In Jail Damage

A 20-year-old San Rafael youth, in county jail awaiting sentencing on a grand theft conviction, was charged last night with damaging jail property by starting a fire.

Jailers said James Albert Sprague of Live-In Motel apparently became irate at lights being turned off at 10:30 p.m. He set fire to magazines in his isolation cell and threw the flaming paper into the hallway, they said.

He was placed in the jail's padded cell, then ripped the padding, they said.

Sprague pleaded guilty to grand theft in the Nov. 22 robbery of $400 from John H. Weisner, bartender at the 881 Club, 881 Fourth Street, San Rafael.

Meeting Changes

Ross School District trustees will meet next Monday at 7:30 p.m. in Ross School. The meeting was postponed from its regularly scheduled time last night to allow trustees to attend a unification hearing held by the Marin County Committee on School District Organization.

Wooden Carvings Stolen

Karen P. Balliett, 229 Cardinal Court, Tamalpais Valley, told sheriff's officers someone took several wooden carvings and three African drums from her home during the past few days.

Deputies said no forced entry was evident.

Grover Ahrens, 13 Laurel Grove Avenue, Kentfield, reported Saturday a $275 woman's wedding ring and a coin bank containing about $25 were taken from his home. Entry was via a rear bathroom window.

Keith K. Kuho, 103 Orange Street, California Park, told deputies he opened a closet door of his home Saturday to find a stranger hiding there. The man, described as five-feet, 11 inches tall and wearing dark clothing, fled out the front door, he said.

Officers said he apparently had forced a southwest window for entry.

Dave G. Schovill of 21 Main Street, Tiburon, reported a wood block print and a folding sign, total value of $60, were taken from his Schovill's Gallery. Sunday. No forced entry was evident.

DIFFERENT SORT OF RECREATION

The Novato Parks and Recreation Commission offered pre-school children in the North Marin city something different in the recreation line today: eye tests, conducted in cooperation with the National Society for the Prevention of Blindness. Five-year-old Erin Fleming of 31 Stasia Drive seems to enjoy it as Mrs. Harry Magill holds patch over one eye while Erin reads test chart with the other.

Clausen Warns On High Park Costs

Rep. Donald H. Clausen, R-Crescent City, estimates that acquisition of land for the Point Reyes National Seashore will cost 30-million dollars, rather than the seven-million estimated when the park was approved by Congress three years ago.

In a letter to Marin County supervisors, Clausen said he is trying to determine why the original authorization was "so grossly underestimated in relation to actual cost."

Main purpose of Clausen's letter to the board was to warn against the county putting a price tag on transfer of Drakes Beach and McClure's Beach county parks to the seashore. He said this will appear as "something added" and will make it more difficult to get congressional approval of additional funds.

The board has not yet decided whether the county will sell or give the county parks to the fededal government.

Clausen's letter prompted supervisors to hold up action on a resolution urging federal support for Route 17, the east-west highway that will provide the main access to the park.

Pampered Pigs Help Market In Hawaii

TIPTON, Calif. (UPI)—Newest wrinkle on the California hog raising scene: pig pacifiers for neurotic porkers.

Pampered pigs, raised for the lucrative Hawaiian luau market, have never had it so good. But hogs raised under modern conditions tend to develop ulcers. And ulcers mean a hog won't eat all that he should, resulting in a poor market quality pig.

The problem, according to Bill Silveira, who raises hogs on a modern ranch near this San Joaquin Valley community, stems from the concrete floors of the pens in which the pigs are raised.

"Nature designed the pig to root for his living," Silveira said." He is equipped with a tough snout for that purpose. So when you keep him on concrete, where he cannot root for food, he sometimes becomes frustrated—even to the point of developing stomach ulcers."

There are, of course, good reasons for raising pigs on concrete. If pigs are left to root in the same ground, year after year, they are more likely to reinfect themselves with diseases. Also, keeping the pigs in concrete-floored pens makes it easier to control their strict diets. This is important in the luau market, which demands lean-type hogs weighing about 90 pounds.

In order to keep the porkers frustration-free in their concrete pens, Silveira suspends chunks of wood on chains from over head beams in the pens. The pigs bite and chew on the wood, jostling and fighting each other for the privilege. And, claims Silveira, away go the tensions.

F.A. LAWRENCE

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — Frank A. Lawrence, presiding commissioner of the State Industrial Accident Commission, died yesterday of an apparent stroke while at work in the State Building. He was 69.

Lawrence, who had been appointed to the commission by Gov. Earl Warren, was a former operating engineers union leader and president of the California Building Trades Council.

As a commissioner, Lawrence stirred some controversy when he dissented from a commission decision rejecting state employee death benefits to widows of Cal Poly football players killed in a plane crash.

It was his view that the players attending Cal Poly on football scholarships were state employees. This opinion later was upheld by the State Supreme Court.

Lawrence is survived by his widow, Ann. He lived in Millbrae.

Russia Demands U.S. Quit South Viet Nam

COMBINED AP & UPI

MOSCOW — Soviet Premier Alexei N. Kosygin today demanded that the United States withdraw its forces from South Viet Nam.

The statement was reported by the Soviet news agency Tass in a message sent by Kosygin to a preparatory meeting of the Indochinese peoples conference at Phnom Panh, capital of Cambodia.

"The Soviet Union resolutely demands the withdrawal of U.S. troops and military equipment from South Viet Nam, the cessation of armed provocations against the Democratic republic of Viet Nam, Laos and Cambodia and the rejection of any military interference in the internal affairs of Indochina," Kosygin's message said.

It was the second time in the past three days that the Kremlin had made such a demand. A communique issued Sunday after Kosygin's meeting with North Korean officials during his Asian trip termed the American air attacks on North Viet Nem "inhuman" and called on the United States to pull its troops out of Viet Nam.

The Soviet Union and Great Britain serve as co-chairmen of the 1954 Geneva Conference which carved up Southeast Asia after the French Indochina war.

At Saigon, a new government headed by Dr. Phan Van Quat, a former foreign minister, and a new 20-member legislative council were installed today by appointment of Lt. Gen. Nguyen Khonh's high command.

Quat called for national unity. He said the formation of the new regime will free the army for further military duties in the U.S.-backed war against the Viet Cong. Quat is a former North Vietnamese who pulled out when the Communists took over North Viet Nam.

A spokesman for the U.S. Embassy said:

"We welcome the end of this interim period and look forward to very close cooperation with this new government."

Supervisors Get Protest Over Alto

The Marin County Board of Supervisors today received but took no action on a protest from the City of Mill Valley regarding the proposed incorporation of Alto.

Leland H. Jordan, city attorney of Mill Valley, wrote that the Marin County Local Agency Formation Commission has already approved Mill Valley's annexation of 134 acres which includes Tamalpais High School and part of the territory included in the Alto incorporation.

Jordan asked supervisors to refuse to accept petitions for incorporation of Alto. The petitions bore 619 signatures which represented 35 per cent of the assessed value of the territory. Only 25 per cent representation is required by law.

Assist. County Administrator John F. Barrows told supervisors they were not required to act regarding acceptance of incorporation petitions. The incorporation proposal goes automatically to the local agency formation commission, he explained.

Selection Of Jury Begins In Knife Case

Jury selection for trial of Stanley R. Davis, San Quentin inmate charged with illegal possession of a knife, began today before Judge Samuel W. Gardiner in Marin Superior Court.

Davis allegedly had a 10-inch blade with taped handle last Feb. 11 during a search by a correctional officer. Davis is serving time for a possession of marijuana conviction in Los Angeles on Jan. 10, 1961.

Bedroom Tax Is Proposed For Novato

A bedroom tax to finance parks and recreation was proposed for the City of Novato last night by Edward W. Adams, park and recreation director.

Adams told the Novato Parks and Recreation Commission that such a tax was recently enacted by the City of Modesto. It places a flat dollar tax on each bedroom of a home, with the money earmarked for parks and recreation.

This would be in addition to any levy for parks and recreation on the regular city property tax.

(Novato, as a general law city, can levy a 20-cent tax for parks and an equal amount for recreation. This year it levied 10 cents for recreation and three cents for acquisition of parks.)

Adams said City Mgr. J. Julien Baget has requested a copy of the Modesto ordinance and of an attorney general's opinion as to its legality.

Bus Service Ends Tomorrow

The Canal Street bus service in East San Rafael will end tomorrow on schedule, Cecil J. Allen, owner of the Richmond-San Rafael Bus Line, said today.

Payments from the East San Rafael Property Owners Assn., which agreed to subsidize the line for six months, hav not been kept up, Allen said.

Mrs. Anne Malacrida, a member of the association, said the property owners owe Allen $427 as of December. The service started Aug. 17.

Mrs. Jorna Helman, accountant handling the funds for the bus service, said only three property owners have kept up their payments.

Two Intoxicated Drivers Fined

David Michael Mull, 18, of 673 Orange Avenue, Novato, was fined $139 yesterday in Marin Municipal Court for drunken driving. He was arrested by sheriff's officers Feb. 6 on Entrada Drive.

Kenneth LeRoy Martin, 35, San Francisco, was fined $220, for drunken driving. He was arrested by sheriff's deputies on Highway 101 on Jan. 23.

$1,704 plus cost of a part-time clerk.

Mrs. Dorothy Olson, chairman of the Fairfax Citizens Study Committee, agreed with Souza that the Radtke-Adams proposal would "water down" the effectiveness of the administrator.

"That's living dangerously," said Everett Jensen of 4 Meadow Way, "It seems to me we need separate functions."

Former Councilman Freeman Blake opposed the idea of promoting a man from equal status with his fellow department heads to a position above them.

Sumardo, 32, has been assistant city manager of South San Francisco for the past four years. He went there from a job as management analyst with the Oregon State department of finance, which he held for two years.

He received a master's degree in public administration from University of Washington in 1957. He is married and has no children.

Mariner Discussion Group To Be Revived

The Mariner discussion group at College of Marin, which a year ago brought Communists and John Birch Society members to campus to speak, is slated to be revived tomorrow.

An organization meeting has been called for noon in room 93 of Olney Hall on the campus. New student leaders of the organization are Henry J. Aigner Jr. of 32 Williams Street, San Rafael, and Donna Ryan of 26 Bret Avenue, San Rafael.

Ex-King Farouk 'Invisible'

ROME (UPI)—Former King Farouk of Egypt, despite his ponderous weight, is practically the "Invisible Man" of Italy.

The fat, goateed man who once reigned over more than 20 million Egyptians still makes his home here, but his life is modest and extremely private.

That's a far cry from when he came to Italy after a coup d'etat forced him to abdicate in July, 1952.

When Farouk arrived at the Isle of Capri after the coup, he was aboard the Egyptian royal yacht Mahroussa and had it well - stocked with whisky, champagne and gin to start his exile in proper style.

Thousands of foreign tourists would stare at the fat man with the black, pointed beard and dark glasses sitting at a table outside the Cafe de Paris on Via Veneto.

Farouk's troubles began shortly after his arrival in Italy. His yacht left Farouk, his wife, then 18-year-old commoner Queen Narriman, and their six-month-old baby King, Ahmed Fuad II, and headed back to Egypt and a new regime.

Then it was Queen Narriman and the couple's son, who lost a throne before he was old enough to realize he even had one. In March, 1953, she left Farouk—taking the child—and divorced him the following year.

But Farouk was undaunted. He became one of the sights on the Via Veneto and was seen nightly in one or another of the clubs, usually with some blonde, almost always in dark glasses.

Farouk's "gay life" continued for several years. Then he gradually retired from public life. He is never seen in Rome's nightclubs any more.

Parks Foundation To Be Organized

A non-profit foundation for acquiring parks for Novato will be organized at a public meeting at 8 p.m. March 3 at the Novato Community House.

An organizing committee has been set up, headed by Fred W. Binnewies of 5 Tyler Street. William J. Keener of the Novato parks and recreation commission, and County Supervisor William A. Gnoss are other members of the committee.

Meeting Changes

There was no meeting last night of the Mill Valley School District trustees because of the public hearing on unification at Redwood High School. The board will meet at 8 p.m. today in the district office.

Loma Verde Addition Due Sept. 13

A six-room addition to Loma Verde School should be completed in time for opening of the new school year on Sept. 13, Supt. Ralph Giovanniello told San Jose School District trustees last night.

The superintendent said the plans have been approved by the state and a bid call should be ready by the middle of March.

He reported also that he has requested a school site at Hamilton Air Force Base which was shown as a hospital site on the master plan of the base.

Ross Carter, principal of Pacheco School, reported on a plan for cooperative teaching, in which five or six teachers meet to plan class lessons. More than 40 such lessons have been planned, recorded and criticized by the teachers, he said.

The trustees endorsed William H. Kirk's proposed bill on school district site acquisition. The bill prepared for Kirk, president of the old Novato unified school district board, and introduced by Assemblyman William T. Bagley, would require that developers sell school sites at their cost.

Inmate Knifing Trial Scheduled

Jury trial of Robert S. Perez, 29, San Quentin prisoner charged with knifing a fellow inmate last June 10, was rescheduled yesterday in Marin Superior Court for March 30.

Perez, accused of knifing Edward Joseph Montoya, 24, asked for court-appointed counsel at the start of his earlier scheduled trial last Tuesday. Judge N. Charles Brusatori appointed the public defender's office.

Conviction of Perez, a lifer serving time for escape in Mendocino County on Feb. 20, 1960, and robbery in Los Angeles County on Feb. 19, 1963, could result in the death penalty.

proval would be necessary for the project, which the council approved last fall.

Menary promised to have a ballot proposal ready for the March 1 meeting.

"We don't want to establish a housing authority," Aby cautioned. "We are interested only in building low-rent housing for San Rafael residents over 65, regardless of race, color or creed."

Two measures were assured for the ballot last night, as the council agreed to a board of education request to consolidate the vote on two school finance matters with the city election.

The first proposition calls for an $850,000 bond issue for building multi-use rooms at nine elementary schools. The second calls for an increase in the general purpose fund operating tax of the San Rafael Elementary School District from $1.75 to $2.25 per $100 assessed valuation (the total tax rate including over-rides and bond redemption, is $2.295 this year).

Senator Labels Governor 'Fink On Reapportionment'

SACRAMENTO (AP) — A Democratic legislative leader, joining a Senate bipartisan attack on Gov. Brown, today described the chief executive as "a fink when it comes to reapportionment."

Sen. Stephen P. Teale, D-Calaveras, the legislator most responsible for drafting a reapportionment bill, said Brown appears to be "meddling in something that at this moment isn't any of his damn business."

"And you can quote me," Teale said, "that this proves what I have suspected. The governor is a fink when it comes to reapportionment."

The attack was triggered by Brown's statements at a Los Angeles news conference Monday. The governor said the legislature is not acting fast enough to beat the July 1 court deadline for Senate reapportionment by population.

Brown added, "At this point it doesn't look good. It is hard for a self-interested group—and I use the word in a good sense—to come to an agreement on a question which affects their own jobs."

Teale said in an interview, "We are working as fast as possible. We will meet the July 1 deadline. This appears to be a move on the part of the governor to take over a job that belongs to the legislature."

The senator, chairman of the upper house Reapportionment Committee, said the principal delay in reapportionment "is confusion of the courts in what their decision on reapportionment means. If they would place some ground rules, it would make our job easier."

Joining Teale in the biting challenge were Senate leaders from both Democratic and Republican ranks.

Senate President Pro Tem Hugh Burns, D-Fresno, said the Senate was working as rapidly as possible and with sufficient speed to meet the court deadline.

Burns said of Brown's statement, "That is nothing more than the opinion of the governor."

Senate Minority Leader John F. McCarthy, R-San Rafael, suggested that "Gov. Brown spend some time in the legislative halls to find out what's going on."

"There is no truth to his statement," McCarthy added. "We are working on reapportionment day and night."

The Republican leader said if Gov. Brown wanted to do something on reapportionment he should "come out strongly for a U.S. constitutional amendment to permit the people of a state to reapportion themselves."

Washington Painting Rediscovered

BERKELEY, Calif. (AP)—A gigantic painting — depicting Gen. George Washington in Revolutionary War action—goes on display this week after being forgotten for half a century in a girls' gymnasium basement.

Herschel B. Chipp, director of the University of California Art Gallery at Berkeley, identified the 23- by 13-foot canvas as a companion piece to the celebrated "Washington Crossing the Delaware," by artist Emanuel Leutze.

The painting, which had been rolled up like a rug in the basement of the Hearst Gymnasium for women, shows troops rallying around Washington at Monmouth, N.J.

Chipp said the canvas was painted by Leutze in 1854 and came to the university in 1882 as a gift from the late Mrs. Mark Hopkins.

It was rediscovered, Chipp said, after he received a letter from American Heritage, the illustrated history magazine. The magazine had traced the canvas to the university.

Chipp said he found the painting rolled around a redwood log and wrapped in sheeting.

He said it would cost thousands of dollars to restore the masterpiece fully. The colors have been well preserved, Chipp said, but the painting is dirty and shows water marks at several spots.

Ex-Convicts Getting Jobs

JOHANNESBURG, South Africa (AP)—Faced with a critical shortage of manpower, South African businessmen are breaking down traditional prejudices and are employing more and more men with prison records.

It is now far easier for a former convict to find a job than ever before. South Africa has an annual jail population of 340,000. During any one day 72,000 people of all races are behind bars. Of these 35,000 are serving terms of two years and longer.

Society's attitude towards the criminal is gradually getting better, reports J. Harley, chairman of the Pretoria Branch of the Social Services Association, which last year helped find jobs for nearly 4,000 former convicts.

Waterfalls Seen Only On Sunday

TERNI, Italy (AP) — One of Italy's most spectacular waterfalls is the Cascata Delle Marmore (the Marble Cascade) near this central Italian Town.

P-TA Told To Work For More Sidewalks

Parent-Teacher Assn. representatives asked the San Rafael City Council last night to institute a program of building sidewalks for the safety of school children—and got the project handed right back to them.

Mrs. Henry Rosso of 121 Du Bois Street, president of the Davidson Junior High School P-TA, and Wallace Marshall of 95 Billou Street, president of the Laurel Dell School P-TA, appeared with City Schools Supt. Bert C. Corona and Charles E. Condrotte, schools business manager, to urge that the city install sidewalks at numerous locations where children must walk in the street. Failing that, they suggested, the city should force property owners to install them.

CAN'T HELP

Councilmen and City Atty. David Menary Jr. assured them the city can do neither.

Mayor John F. McInnis pointed out that the city or state can spend public funds to build sidewalks on its own right-of-way, but not on private property.

Public Works Director Norris M. Rawles said that if over half the frontage on a block has sidewalks, the city by law can force owners of the remainder of that block to install them.

This situation, however, does not apply to the list of streets where the P-TA and school representatives asked for walks, Rawles said.

One stretch where sidewalks are sought—San Pedro Road—may get them at public expense, he said. City and county have a joint project for widening San Pedro Road, and Rawles reported inclusion of sidewalks on the public right-of-way was under discussion.

For the rest, Councilman Charles W. Aby suggested the P-TA might be able to "shame" property owners into putting in sidewalks.

Aby said neighborhood agitation resulted in sidewalks being installed by property owners along several streets in the vicinity of Sun Valley School after that school was built.

"Perhaps it could be done again," he suggested.

"I can't imagine a better project for the P-TAs," said Mayor McInnis.

The school P-TA delegation asked sidewalks on the following streets:

For Davidson Junior High and Laurel Dell schools pupils: East side of Lindaro Street from Cijos Street to the schools; west side of Lindaro from Albert Park Way to Woodland Avenue; both sides of Woodland from Warner Court to Lindaro; both sides of Irwin Street across the main Northwestern Pacific Railroad tracks; east side opposite Duffy Place and from the NWP spur to Lovell Street; both sides of Lovell; Woodland Avenue adjacent to Laurel Dell School and at points where there is now no sidewalk from there to Jacoby Street.

For Sun Valley School pupils: Both sides of Fifth Avenue in the 2000-2200 blocks; Scenic Avenue; Bayo Vista Way.

For Santa Venetia Junior High School pupils: Both sides of North San Pedro Road from the Highway 101 underpass to Vendola Drive; both sides of Vendola Drive to the school; both sides of La Brea Way from North San Pedro Road to Adrian Way. (All these streets are outside the city.)

BOTH SIDES

For Oliver Hartzell School pupils: Both sides of Ranchitos Road from Glenside Way to the school; Ranch Road from the Highway underpass to Ranchitos Road. (These streets are outside the city.)

For San Pedro School pupils: Both sides of San Pedro Road from Embarcadera Way to the school. (This is partly outside the city.)

For Glenwood School pupils: Both sides of San Pedro Road between Locksley Lane and the school, except for short stretches where there is already sidewalk. (This is partly outside the city.)

Zone Rules May Change In Mill Valley

Mill Valley City Council gave first reading last night to four proposed changes in the city's zoning ordinance, including one which would call for a $1,000 fee from persons who knowingly build without a use permit.

Other amendments would authorize permits for shopping center signs, and would eliminate publication of newspaper legal advertising for public hearings on use permits and variances.

The council voted in principle on each of four amendments before reading them, by title only, as a single document.

Only dissent came when Councilman George E. Wickham voted against the $1,000 fee, which would take the place of the present $135 one.

The fee—which all agreed really is a penalty—is required of anyone who starts to build without a permit then goes on building after he has been told in writing that he must stop. He must pay it before the city will consider his belated application, and it carries no guarantee he will get a permit at that time.

Wickham complained that the procedure would be saying, in effect, that "we can be bought for $1,000.

The two amendments dealing with hearings would require that property owners within 200 feet, instead of the present 300 feet, be notified, in addition to doing away with legal advertisements.

HAFB Band Wins

The 28th Air Division Marching Band from Hamilton Air Force Base won a second place award in the San Francisco Chinatown parade welcoming the new "Year of the Snake" Saturday evening.

Decision Backed On Red Speaker

Trustees of Tamalpais High School District last night backed a decision which brought a Communist speaker before students, as five residents protested the move.

Elbert J. (Mickey) Lima, Northern California chairman of the Communist Party, spoke to Redwood High School students about two weeks ago. Several parents complained that a Communist should not be permitted to speak to the students.

The board's decision was backed from the audience at the meeting by Mrs. Richard L. Foster of Greenbrae and another parent who approved it as part of "open discussion" and expressed faith in students to think discriminately.

The three trustees present, William Lewis, Mrs. Gloria Melbostad and J. M. Stubblebine, stood by the district policy under which outside speakers are allowed to appear.

In states, in part:

"Intelligent study of the American way of life . . . must often involve consideration of vital issues which have found, or must yet find, their resolution in the labor and heat of public controversy.

"Controversial issues, therefore, must be regarded as an esssential characteristic of the American democratic process, and any effective education for participation in that process must deal with such issues frankly and honestly."

Clifford A. Gerstner of Greenbrae protested in a letter, the "Godless criminal conspiracy" being presented to students and warned of Communist "semantic trickery."

W. G. Woodward of Larkspur, who recently spoke before Redwood students about the John Birch Society, wrote, "I cannot agree that an organization which has long ago been declared a part of a world-wide criminal conspiracy . . . should be given a tax-supported platform, even under the guise of 'presenting both sides' or of being 'educationally beneficial'."

Hubert O. Pessner of Greenbrae wrote that "these people are doing their utmost to use American democratic institutions at every level to destroy us and the free enterprise system."

Mr. and Mrs. Galley Gates Sill Sr. of San Anselmo wrote that they object to "having such a person speak to the tender minds of our high school students."

In other business last night, the high school district accepted the resignation into retirement as of June 30 of Victor H. Rowe, head counselor at Tamalpais High School, who has been with the district for more than 20 years.

Harbor Work Gets Extension

Mill Valley won a 17-month extension on completion of its Richardson Bay small craft harbor yesterday at the State Small Craft Harbors Commission meeting in Redondo Beach, Los Angeles County.

Deadline had been last Jan. 1, but city officials explained dredging was taking longer than expected and the harbor's deep water channel had to be relocated. Th small craft harbors commission extended the deadline to June 1, 1966.

The marina is being built with a $300,000 loan from the state commission.

On-Sale License

SACRAMENTO (CNS)—James O. Reimel, director of alcoholic beverage control, announced the department has issued an on-sale general liquor license to Louis A. and Sara G. Buecher, The Cellars, 534 Third Street, San Rafael.

Marincello Plan Look Requested

Mill Valley city councilmen voted 4-0 last night to ask Marin County officials to give them a look at plans for the proposed southern Marin city of Marincello before the county takes action on them.

Councilman Joseph E. Sheeks, who represents Marincello's developers as an attorney, abstained from the vote.

Mayor Michael Wornum opened the topic by banning discussion on the Marin County Board of Supervisors' recent decision to zone the area for planned community development.

Wornum said he could see no point in discussing whether an action already taken had been a wise one. He told his fellow councilmen he would like to hear a motion asking the county to submit the forthcoming Marincello map to Mill Valley, since its growth would have an impact on life in his city.

Councilman Albert E. White promptly said he would "go you one step further," and moved to ask that the plans be sent to all southern Marin cities.

After discussion, councilmen concluded they might weaken their position by expanding the request in this way. White changed his motion to include Mill Valley only.

The amount of landry additive — water softener, detergent bleach — used in laundry depends largely on the water capacity of the washer.

Blithedale Stop Signs Voted In Mill Valley

The Mill Valley City Council last night voted to erect stop signs at all crossings of East Blithedale Avenue from Throckmorton Avenue to Camino Alto, and one sign on Bernard Street at Lovell Avenue.

Also authorized was a yield right-of-way sign on Hill Street at Sunnyside Avenue.

The council action came on recommendations by City Mgr. Bert A. Balmer. He said the Blithedale stop signs were needed to give right-of-way to arterial traffic.

Balmer said parking congestion on Lovell makes "crossing at Bernard particulary touchy," thus calling for the stop sign there. The yield sign on Hill Street is needed during hours of heavy commuter traffic, he said.

The Mill Valley City Council also:

1. Granted Western Associates a permit to set up the city's first coin-operated car wash at Ashford Avenue and Lomita Drive. Hours of operation were limited to the period from 7 a.m. to 9 p.m. The applicants had sought a 24-hour operation.

2. Granted Kleve Johnson a permit for a parking lot at the rear of 20 Valley Circle, to serve a planned medical building on nearby Camino Alto. The permit was made subject to several conditions, including a fence to protect neighbors' privacy.

3. Adopted a policy recommended by Balmer on the "control and use" of the city's community and youth center. The policy places the center under the parks and recreation department, stipulates that its use will be "on a reserved and sponsored basis," and calls for a "proper fee schedule," with preference for local and non-profit groups.

4. Adopted a similar statement, also submitted by Balmer, on future use of the city's uncompleted small craft harbor. It, too, will be run by the parks and recreation department. Mill Valley residents will get priority on moorage reservations, but rates will be competitive with Sausalito and San Rafael harbors. Fuel docks and launching ramps will be leased to an operator, and the area on the east will be leased for private development.

Tam Girl Wins Speech Contest

Joyce Williams, 17, a Tamalpais High School senior, last night won the speech contest sponsored by the Sausalito Lions Club.

Miss Williams, daughter of Sgt. and Mrs. Edward Williams, lives at Fort Baker. Runnersup were Kathleen Crain and Susan H. West of Mill Valley. The next competition for Miss Williams will be the zonal competion. No date has been set.

Judges were Mrs. Loren Jay, Doris E. Pratt and Rev. John Thornton.

Broken Water Main Disrupts Service

A broken water main in Terra Linda resulted in disrupted service to about 12 consumers today.

The break in a six-inch cast iron main beneath Las Colindas Road near Las Raposas Road was reported to the Terra Linda Fire Department at 5:58 a.m.

Police Citations Drop Questioned

The San Rafael City Council looked with some dismay last night at the monthly police report which showed a drop of nearly 1,100 in traffic citations last month below January, 1964.

The report by Police Chief Charles J. Chiesa showed 2,519 traffic citations, compared to 3,612 in January of last year. Most of the drop was in parking tickets. Motor violations decreased from 2,704 a year ago to 1,799 last month; other illegal parking dropped from 568 to 501.

Speeding citations declined from 108 to 57.

"The council questions the reduction in traffic citations," said Mayor John F. McInnis. "I think we have the right to expect better enforcement."

He noted there has been no decline in traffic.

There was none in traffic accidents, either. Last month, 110 accidents were reported, one more than in January, 1964.

Another part of the police chief's report showed a considerable increase in crime. Class one, or major, crimes reported totaled 139 last month, compared to 88 in January a year ago. Total crimes, not counting traffic, were 307 compared with 164 in January of last year.

The police came in for some criticism, too, as City Mgr. Dan E. Andersen was authorized to buy a new police car through the state to replace one wrecked by Patrolman John F. Riordan as he was responding to a burglar alarm in the Northgate Shopping Center on Feb. 4.

The city manager said the accident, in which the police car hit an abutment, was being investigated by the city safety committee.

The council postponed action on an amendment to the subdivision ordinance to require underground utilities.

"The more I get involved in it, the more certain I am that the present situation is based on misinformation," declared Mayor McInnis. He asked for a special meeting with representatives of Pacific Gas and Electric Co., Pacific Telephone and Telegraph Co. and some contractor experienced in underground work, before holding any hearing on the ordinance amendment.

The San Rafael City Council Also:

1. Upheld planning commission denial of a rotating sign atop the Northwestern Savings and Loan Assn. building at Fifth Avenue and B Street.

2. Continued until March 1 public hearing on the Francisco Boulevard Assessment District, at request of Edwin Ness, attorney for the district.

3. Expressed willingness to adopt a resolution setting forth the boundaries of the Marin Yacht Club's lease at Goose Neck Bend of the former San Rafael Creek channel, if the club presents a written description.

4. Approved the final map of 30-lot Bellam Subdivision No. 1.

5. Was informed by Public Works Director Norris M. Rawles that Clear View Cable System, Inc., had withdrawn its application for an encroachment permit for underground cables for a proposed master television antenna system.

6. Informed L. A. Kottenstette of Glenwood Homeowners Assn. that the city has no responsibility in a dispute between homeowners and a Glenwood builder because houses were improperly located on some lots.

7. Directed City Manager Andersen to contract with the State Finance Department for a population estimate, at a fee of $270. Jack Alvarado, chamber of commerce manager, cited a Marin Development Assn. estimate that San Rafael's population is now 30,560. Andersen said if the state agrees, the city will pick up an additional $25,000 in state subventions.

8. Authorized condemnation of a triangular parcel of land at the rear of 104 Shaver Street, needed for the extension of Third Street westerly.

9. Set hearings March 1 on rezoning 1487 Lincoln Avenue from single-family dwelling to transient residential; zoning Loch Lomond Highlands, now unclassified, as single-family dwelling with 10,000-square foot lot minimum, and zoning unclassified portions of the Terra Linda annexation to single-family dwelling and garden apartment districts.

10. Adopted an ordinance rezoning a section of Glenwood from planned community to single-family dwelling with 7,500-square foot lots.

11. Appropriated $650 to buy a new duplicating machine.

Councilman Louis H. Baar was absent.

Auto Rolls Over Bank

Edward J. Mullen Jr. of 16 Broadmoor Avenue, San Anselmo, parked his car on D Street north of Meyer Road, San Rafael, yesterday, got out and started taking photographs of old trees in the area.

He didn't get to stay at it long.

Mullen looked up to see his car rolling backward, police reported. The car went 120 feet before it dropped over a bank and landed in a yard at 20 D Street. It was demolished.

Car Hits Truck On Highway 101

Ivory Smith Sr., 54, of 79 Cole Drive, Marin City, was driving north in the southbound lanes of Highway 101 yesterday when his car sideswiped a truck and crashed into another car, the California Highway Patrol reported.

No one was injured in the smash-up at 6:45 a.m. near the Greenbrae interchange.

MARIN FIRE CALLS

1541 Fourth San Rafael

Park Site Purchase Is Approved

San Rafael City Councilmen agreed last night to purchase a five-acre park site from the Nunes family, and received a petition asking purchase of another four-acre parcel for a park.

The petition, bearing 167 signatures, was presented by Dr. Bruce Chandler of the 150 Trellis Drive on behalf of the Don Timoteo School Parent-Teacher Assn.

It asked that the city use money set up in the current budget for improvement of Freitas Park to buy the Nunes site and a four-acre site near Don Timoteo School.

The 60-acre Freitas Park is being given to the city by the Freitas Estate, except for a one-sixteenth interest which is still in negotiation. Because of the delay, there is little likelihood of much improvement on it before the fiscal year ends June 30.

City Mgr. Dan E. Andersen reported he and Councilman Louis H. Baar had met with Tom Nunes and his attorney, John G. Buresh, and agreed on a $32,500 price for the five acres at the end of De La Guerra Way. Andersen said it is mostly flat land.

Councilman Charles W. Aby moved to have a survey made to determine the boundaries, and asked that it be ready by the March 1 council meeting. This was voted unanimously.

Councilman Harry A. Barbier told Chandler that the four-acre site near Don Timoteo School also belongs to the Freitas family, and action on buying it awaits completion of negotiations for the 60-acre site. Mayor John F. McGinnis assured Chandler that the council is favorable to the purchase.

Site Of Tunnel Cave-In Due San Rafael Billboard

The Friendly Southern Pacific is soon to have some unsolicited billboard advertising in San Rafael, and it may acquire some pickets too.

The San Rafael City Council, with Councilman Louis H. Baar absent, last night agreed to Mayor John F. McInnis's request for authority to have a billboard erected at once near the site of the Puerto Suello railroad tunnel cave-in, calling attention to what the railroad has done about it — which is nothing. The mayor had suggested such a sign last month.

McInnis said the California Division of Highways is "in the last stages of engineering" for the next unit of the new Highway 101 freeway through San Rafael—which includes Puerto Suello hill.

But, he said, the division cannot complete the road as planned as long as what happens to the Northwestern Pacific railroad (a Southern Pacific subsidiary) remains in doubt.

Within a month after the tunnel cave-in, the railroad asked the Interstate Commerce Commission for permission to abandon the line. The ICC refused, and was upheld in its refusal by federal district court and the U.S. Supreme Court.

"The Supreme Court says that states must be redistricted so that one vote is equal anywhere, and they have all our legislators running around in circles," said McInnis.

"But the Supreme Court rules Southern Pacific cannot abandon a rail line, and Southern Pacific does it anyway.

He suggested that, since court rulings get no action, the weight of public opinion be tried.

Councilman Harry A. Barbier moved, and Councilman Fred E. Jensen seconded, that a billboard with "appropriate wording" be erected at once to call attention to the caved-in tunnel. No formal vote was taken, but there was no objection.

McInnis suggested pickets might be tried, too.

"Maybe we as a city should try to interest a couple of hundred good, responsible citizens in picketing the SP's headquarters in San Francisco," he suggested.

The council had before it a letter from Howard M. Peek of 14 Lagoon Road, Belvedere, suggesting that in the public interest the city acquire the railroad right-of-way south of the tunnel.

"Our public bodies, jointly, should negotiate with the Northwestern Pacific Railroad Company to obtain their property in Southern Marin on favorable terms, in exchange for dropping the demand for reconstruction of an uneconomic tunnel," Peek wrote.

The council authorized McInnis and City Mgr. Dan E. Andersen to reply to the letter.

Turkey Names Interim Premier

ANKARA, Turkey (AP) — President Cemal Gursel named Sen. Suat Hayri Urguplu, former ambassador to Washington and London, as premier-designate today to succeed Ismet Inonu, the semiofficial Anatolia news agency reported.

The leaders of the four opposition parties which upset Inonu's minority government Saturday recommended Urguplu to Gursel as an interim premier.

Urguplu, 61, an independent, is considered a moderate. He was president of the Turkish Senate from 1961 to 1963. Gursel had insisted that Inonu's successor be a political neutral rather than a partisan to avoid possible trouble before the scheduled October general election.

TV Antenna Decision Postponed

Marin County planning commissioners yesterday postponed decision on whether to permit a master television antenna in Tamalpais Valley after residents protested.

The commission session, with Felix M. Warburg presiding in the absence of chairman Niels Schultz Jr., ran from 9 a.m. yesterday until 11 o'clock last night.

Commissioners agreed they want to see a plot plan for the proposed installation by Clear View Cable Systems at 188 Stanford Avenue.

Petitions bearing more than 20 signatures, representing property owners along Peralta Avenue and Stanford Avenue, were submitted in opposition.

Richard Webster, general manager of Clear View Cable Systems, said the antenna, to serve 2,000 homes in Tamalpais Valley, would be screened by trees. The television service would be distributed to homes by underground cables and there would be no interference to nearby television receivers, Webster said.

The overall height of the installation would be about 22 feet with the main structure about eight feet high, he said.

The Marin County Planning Commission also:

1. Granted architectural supervision for conversion of a store building at 1046 Redwood Highway, Alto, to a private school for primary pupils, as requested by Jaclyn Albright.

2. Recommended granting William French a two-year use perfit to operate a boarding stable for 16 horses at the "old Borello Ranch Headquarters" on the north side of Sir Francis Drake Boulevard, about one mile west of Nicasio-San Geronimo Road, Forest Knolls.

3. Approved a tentative map of Lucas Valley Unit 8, a nine-acre subdivision containing 32 lots at the southwest corner of County Farm Road and Idylberry Road, Lucas Valley, to be constructed by Eichler Homes.

4. Approved a tentative map of Harbor Point Unit 3, a proposed 21-acre subdivision by Eichler Homes, including 28 single-family lots and 62 duplex lots, between Salt Works Canal and Harbor Point Unit 2.

5. Approved a master plan for Harbor Vista, a proposed 254-unit development including single-family homes, quadruplexes and a 24-unit condominium on 26 acres between Belvedere Drive and West Strawberry area on the ridge east of Highway 101. The plan was submitted by Norman T. Gilroy, architect and land planner for Milan Development Co. of San Francisco.

6. Continued until March 1 consideration of an application by R. E. Miles for a permit to extend a private boat harbor in Paradise Cove, north of the Paradise Cay subdivision.

7. Continued until March 1 consideration of an application by Hoytt Enterprises for a permit for a "townhouse community" on 13.5 acres on the south side of Miller Creek Road, starting approximately 550 feet east of Las Gallinas Avenue, Marinwood.

8. Granted Herbert Dugan architectural supervision for a commercial building at 3765 Redwood Highway, across Highway 101 from the Civic Center on condition that he submit a plot plan that solves parking and access problems.

9. Continued indefinitely an application by Frank Gelardi for a permit to allow excavating and cutting a bank along Shoreline Highway, opposite the Richfield Service Station at Almonte, after receiving a protest from the City of Mill Valley against the proposed excavation.

Chairman Niels Schultz Jr. and Commissioner Eugene Trombley were absent.

When telephone lines were lifelines

The rains slammed down on Northern California Sunday, December 20. As mountains began to slide and rivers rose—ripping out phone lines and breaking up bridges like this one on the Eel River—telephone people had already taken emergency measures to protect vital service. Central offices were sandbagged. Telephone people worked around the clock as calls in some places soared to double that of normal Christmas-week high.

Tons of telephone equipment arrived, too. A convoy of trucks rolled in to help out where there was trouble. And there was plenty of it. Poles had been toppled, overhead lines snapped, underground cables washed away. Temporary microwave radio units were set up to carry calls usually handled by now washed out cable. Central offices without power turned to stand-by generators.

This telephone man is shooting a line across a gorge where a bridge had been washed out. In many places telephone men had to slog in on foot, laying lines as they went and packing relief supplies along with them.

By Christmas Day, some 1,000 telephone men and women had poured in from other parts of the state. The Air Force helped to fly in telephone men to repair damage to facilities, operators to relieve at switchboards which were loaded with calls, and teletypewriters and other equipment for disaster field offices. Two operators unable to reach their own office in Chico, went—unexpected, but welcome—to lend a hand at Willows.

Rowboats, helicopters, bulldozers, tractors and snowshoes were some of the unusual ways telephone men reached places where they were needed. After sliding this boat 500 feet down a muddy, snowy, rocky bank, telephone men rowed across the rampaging Rubicon River to string out strategic replacement cable near well-named Hell Hole Dam. The seven-mile drive to the point where the boat was lowered took four hours.

Stranded residents were flown out in a plane which took telephone men in to get service going.

By the week after Christmas, most of the telephones knocked out by the fury of the storm were working again. Despite great damage to telephone equipment, service was holding up and calls were getting through. Alternate facilities, stand-by equipment ... these planned emergency measures were ready. Trained telephone men and women were ready, too, to work together protecting vital telephone lines which are often lifelines when disaster strikes.

TIBURON ROAD WORK DUE

Bids will be opened Feb. 24 in the State Division of Highways office in Sacramento, to construct a four-lane highway on portions of Tiburon Boulevard shown in heavy black.

The project will add a mile to the four-lane project begun last year from the Alto end of the thoroughfare. The state has earmarked $610,000 for the job, expected to take seven months.

Shopping Center Plans Approved

The Novato Planning Commission last night approved the plans for a downtown shopping center at Seventh Street and Grant Avenue, included a supermarket, drug store, bank, two buildings of smaller shops and a service station.

The center will be across Seventh Street from the Lee Brothers Market, which was developed by the same firm, Hoytt Enterprises of Richmond. Area totals nearly two acres. Plans show parking for 480 cars.

The Novato Planning Commission also:

1. Approved the tentative map of San Marin Unit 8 on 66 acres north of San Marin Drive and west of San Andreas Drive. This is to include a recreation center, shopping center, professional center and apartments.
2. Approved the grading plan for Kaden Park Units 2 and 3. About 15 residents were present to object to the plan as originally submitted. That approval eliminated eight lots and a cul de sac. It is the first plan made subject to the city's new grading ordinance.
3. Approved a lot split by Louis Braz-Diaz on Diablo Avenue east of Warner Creek, and a three-lot subdivision by Robert Hune on McClay Road.
4. Approved rezoning from agricultural to retail business of a lot at 1682 Novato Boulevard, requested by Constantino Guisti.
5. Granted Frank T. Perachiotti a retail real estate sales office at the northwest corner of South Novato and Rowland boulevards.
6. Postponed until March 8 consideration of rezoning from agricultural to duplex and tentative map of 24 lots of Beverly Maple Corp. vs. Beverly Knolls Unit 2, on Sunset Parkway at San Jose Boulevard, and consideration of rezoning from multiple to single-family of four acres at Cherry and Armstrong streets, owned by Ralph T. McGrath.

Short-Change Artists Gets $10 At Store

Elizabeth W. Roberts of Roberts Junior Gentleman, 514 Fourth Street, San Rafael, complained to police yesterday that a short-change artist gained $10 from her in a 25-cent transaction just before closing time Saturday.

She said two men came in and one bought a handkerchief, handing her a $20 bill. After a few quick exchanges of various-sized bills, they left. She realized her shortage when she counted her receipts an hour later.

Annex Rumor Is Denied By Balmer

Rumors that Eichler Homes Inc. has requested that its proposed residential development on Strawberry Point be annexed to the City of Mill Valley were denied today by City Mgr. Bert A. Balmer.

"This is absolutely not true," said Balmer.

Balmer said he learned of the rumors through a Tiburon councilman who told him they are being circulated by Alto proponents of incorporation.

Balmer also denied that Mill Valley is trying to persuade Town and Country Village, nearing completion near Alto Wye on Strawberry side of the highway, to annex to Mill Valley. He said, however, he has had an inquiry from owners of the development.

The Marin County Local Agency Formation Commission reported today it has received a request from Morris Stulsaft, president of Milland Development Co., San Francisco, requesting that his 68 acres of uninhabited property east of Highway 101 and south of the new shopping center be excluded from the contemplated City of Alto.

Minimum Lot Size Voted In Belvedere

The Belvedere Planning Commission last night voted to require a minimum lot size of 15,000 square feet for the hilly portions of the city.

The commission also approved an ordinance proposal which gives the city closer control on subdivisions of fewer than four lots, closing a loophole in the subdivision ordinance.

The decisions came at a public hearing at the Belvedere Community Hall which brought out about 20 plersons, though few commented on the ordinance changes, reported Leslie Graham, vice chairman of the planning commission.

The 15,000-square foot minimum will double the minimum lot size required for construction of homes on the hilly terrain, the 7,500 square foot minimum for flat land building will remain the same. Commissioners also set a 75 foot minimum frontage and 75 foot minimum average width for hillside lots. All votes were unanimous.

The proposed ordinance on March 1 will go before the city council.

Refund Sought In San Mateo

SAN MATEO (AP) — The City Council voted 3-2 last night to seek a refund of $1.25 million raised by a special levy on motorists to finance a rapid transit study.

It was a property tax on automobiles collected by the state with the license fees.

The council called on Assemblymen Leo Ryan and Carl Britschgi and Sen. Richard Dolwig to introduce legislation repealing the special tax and refunding the money.

ISTANBUL, Turkey (AP) — Nine persons were killed and 55 injured when two passenger buses collided in dense fog last night on the Istanbul-Ankara highway near Eskishehir Province.

'Full Service' Library Set For Novato

After considerable discussion which ranged as far as reference works on Oriental rugs, the Marin County Board of Supervisors today approved "full service" library in Novato by 1968.

Full service means having more reference works and more volumes in general than a present branch library. The board policy would establish the full service system when circulation rose above 75,000 volumes a year at a branch library.

Supervisor Byron W. Leydecker asked whether such a policy would dilute the services of the central library at the Civic Center. Asst. County Administrator John F. Barrows said no. The central library would continue to offer reference material "in depth," he said.

"I don't think that the depth here is entirely adequate," Leydecker said. He reported the latest reference work on Oriental rugs at the main library was written in 1914.

Board chairman Peter H. Behr suggested the county should have a Friends of the Library organization to promote collection of books. Leydecker agreed.

The board voted unanimously to establish the 75,000 circulation-full service policy and to authorize negotiations for lease of a larger building for the library branch until the county can erect its own building there.

Barrows said the construction will be done through the present library tax and there would be no tax increase to support the policy.

Patrolmen Find Damaged Stolen Car

Highway patrolmen about 11 a.m. yesterday found an abandoned auto against an embankment on North San Pedro Road, just beyond Joe's Boat Landing in Santa Venetia, with the right front fender and side damaged and one wing window smashed.

They learned the car had been reported stolen about two hours earlier from William J. Erkelens, 45 Tamal Vista Boulevard, Corte Madera, who had parked it the night before in front of 3 Chickasaw Court, Corte Madera.

Reed School Board Candidate Files

James B. Atkin, 38 Alcatraz Avenue, Belvedere, who was appointed to the Reed School District board last month, filed as a candidate for election to the board at the county schools office yesterday afternoon.

Atkin was appointed to succeed Leo Souza, who resigned, for a term ending in June.

Bench Smashed

Carl B. Owens of the Monte Mar Motel, 855 Francisco Boulevard, San Rafael, told police yesterday he found a $15 vanity bench smashed in one unit a few hours after a man who registered as A. J. Pesanovitch of Beverly Hills checked out.

On the average, the silk of a spider measures less than 1-10,000th of an inch and has been known to measure as little as 1-1 millionth of an inch.

Possession Of Marijuana Charged To Two Youths

Two Mill Valley youths who reside about a mile apart were arrested at their homes yesterday by State Narcotics Bureau and Marin County officers for alleged possession of marijuana.

John William Parker, 19, of 608 Douglas Drive, was booked into county jail about noon, then released on his own recognizance for appearance for counsel and plea in Marin Municipal Court on Feb. 23.

A second suspect, 17 years old and a student at Tamalpais High School, was arrested at 6:30 p.m. and booked into Marin County Juvenile Hall.

Narcotics officers said Parker, unemployed, had less than half of a small tobacco can full of rough marijuana in his possession. Sheriff's Inspector Marco Melovich said the 17-year-old had a slightly larger amount in two match boxes and a cardboard tube.

He said the high school boy purchased the "manicured" marijuana for $10, and kept it in a small box in his bedroom. The boy has allegedly been smoking marijuana for two months, he said.

Both state and sheriff's officers said no "ring" of users at Tamalpais High School is indicated.

A narcotics bureau spokesman said neither suspect revealed his source.

San Mateo Bridge Up For Sale

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — A bridge across San Francisco Bay will be advertised to the world for sale soon.

E. R. Foley, chief engineer of the state division of bay toll crossings, said it would cost less to transplant the five central spans of the San Mateo-Hayward bridge to anywhere else in the world than to build a new one.

The bridge is being replaced by a new high-level $70 million span.

Foley said the division will advertise in foreign publications and engineering journals to attract international bridge buyers. Advertising will start in a month or two.

A buyer from another country could dismantle and then rebuild the bridge. Or entire trusses could be placed on sea-going barges.

The buyer would have either one span of 1,500 feet or five bridges, each of 300 feet.

Warrant War Enters New Phase

UKIAH (AP) — Another superior court round began today in the $1.5 million slander suit arising from Mendocino County's eight-year-long War of the Warrants.

The 12-member jury was impaneled yesterday after day-long selections in the court of visiting Judge W. G. Watson of neighboring Humboldt County Superior Court.

Both Mendocino County superior court judges disqualified themselves because of personal knowledge of the War of the Warrants, which involved an exchange of arrest warrants between factions of officials in Mendocino County and the City of Ukiah.

The suit at trial was filed against radio station KMSL and owner-operator Edward Mulroney by Mendocino County Sheriff Reno Bartolomie, State Sen. Frank Petersen, Sheriff's Capt. Gino Stefani and Edwart Axt, former sheriff's staff member.

The plaintiffs charge they were slandered by a July 24, 1962, broadcast describing their roles in the War of the Warrants.

Model Homes Lose Flatware To Theives

Someone made himself right at home at four model homes on Cedar Hill Drive, San Rafael, during the weekend, police learned yesterday.

William F. Fink of 19 Twelveoak Hill Drive reported that $30 worth of stainless steel silverware and napkins were stolen from the fully furnished houses.

U.S. Social Security Office Set

The Social Security Administration will open an office in San Rafael about April 1.

Redwood Realtors today announced lease of ground floor space at 1245 Fourth Street in the Kaehler-Farrar Building to the government agency. The lease, negotiated by Edward P. Sabo of Redwood with the General Service Administration was "for an indefinite period" commencing March 15. The offices will occupy approximately 2,000 square feet.

John O'Hara of Social Security headquarters in San Francisco said the office will be staffed by approximately 10 persons and will serve all of Marin County.

He said that department records a year ago showed 11,000 Marin residents receiving Social Security payments totaling $841,000 a month. A field representative has been visiting the county one or two days a week to process claims.

The new office will be open Mondays through Fridays, he said.

Stolen Safe Is Recovered

A 200-pound safe stolen from Drake's Highway Garage, Inverness, last Friday night was discarded near Pierce Point Road just east of Tomales Bay State Park, sheriff's officers said today.

They said about $400 cash was removed after the burglars used a pick and brush hook to force the door. Checks, credit cards and other papers were left scattered near the safe, deputies said, and were recovered.

The safe was found Saturday by Ranger Roy A. Cholsom of the state park. One of two new tires, also taken from the garage, was found nearby.

The garage, owned by Edward Richardson, was entered by forcing a side window, then apparently driving a car into the building to load the safe.

A new ladies' and men's apparel shop will be opened at 5643 Paradise Drive in Corte Madera next Saturday.

The owner, Mrs. Ingrid Hogle, who lives just the other side of the 101 on Meadow Valley Road, will call it Paradise Fashions. It will be open Tuesdays through Saturdays from 10:30 a.m. to 5:30 p.m., and closed Mondays. A grand opening will be held on March 2.

A REPORT from Harold S. Elberg, president of San Rafael Federal Savings and Loan Assn. shows an opposite trend. The company's outstanding real estate loans have increased almost 10 per cent since the first of this year. There were no foreclosures or delinquent loans in 19 months, Elberg said.

Stock Market Loses In Moderate Trading

NEW YORK (AP) — The stock market closed with a loss today in moderate trading.

The list was mixed in early trading but gradually assumed a lower trend. Losses deepened in the afternoon, with no special emphasis on selling.

A loss of about 4 by Du Pont was a bid dampener to the averages.

The news background was routine. There was nothing much out of Viet Nam, but caution ruled and bids scarce.

Eastern Air Lines lost 2; U.S. Smelting 3, Pure Oil nearly 3.

Down a point or so were Xerox, Chrysler, Polaroid and Sears, Roebuck.

IBM dropped 3 and Control Data nearly 2.

Volume for the day was estimated at 5 million shares compared with 5.77 million yesterday.

Here was the picture near the close:

The market averages were depressed by Du Pont's 3-point loss, but Chrysler (ex dividend) recovered a point. Some aerospace and airline issues made strides.

General Dynamics was briskly traded and up more than a point. Boeing climbed nearly a point. United Air Lines advanced nearly 2 while Eastern Air Lines sank more than a point as profit taking was resumed.

General Motors, Texaco, Bethlehem, General Electric and Union Carbide were among fractional losers.

IBM dropped 2; Polaroid and Control Data more than a point.

Pure Oil, off more than 2, looked like the volume leader as traders backed away from the proposed basis of the merger with Union Oil which was 1-point loser in fairly active dealings.

United Artists slipped about 2; Marine Midland and Texas Gulf Sulphur about 1 each.

Prices were mostly higher in moderate trading on the American Stock Exchange.

Supermarket In Bon Air To Sell Out

Bon Air Supermarket will close its door for good within the next three months.

The store, operated by James Kilpatrick since 1952, started today selling out its merchandise at a discount. Kilpatrick said the sale will continue until all goods are sold. Bids are also being accepted for equipment and fixtures, he said, and everything must be moved out "to the bare walls" by May 31, when his lease expires.

Kilpatrick came to Marin County from Millbrae where he still owns one-half interest in Kilpatrick's Market. He said that after 30 years in the grocery business he plans to retire.

Now living in San Anselmo temporarily, Kilpatrick sold his home in Greenbrae in December. He intends to move to Paradise, Butte County, he said.

Niels Schultz Jr. of Bon Air Development Co. said there is no plan as yet for occupancy of the market building after Kilpatrick vacates it.

Humble Plans First Coast Plant

SALINAS (AP)—Humble Oil and Refining Co. disclosed yesterday tentative plans to build a 50-million dollar refinery near Moss Landing on a 445-acre site it has purchased.

J. Prince Warner, vice president of manufacturing for the Houston, Texas, company said the plans call for a plant with a capacity of 50,000 barrels a day. It would employ between 200 and 300 men.

The site is two miles southeast of Moss Landing in an unincorporated area adjacent to a magnesium plant of Kaiser Industries.

"It's going to take a year to design the plant and another year to build it and put it in operation," Warner said.

The refinery would be Humble's first on the West Coast.

U.S. Production Level Goes Up

WASHINGTON (AP) — Increases in output of machinery and some household goods nudged the nation's industrial production level another notch higher in January.

Production of automobiles and steel continued at the booming pace set in December.

The Federal Reserve Board reported yesterday that its index of industrial production was 137.7 in January. This means the total output of factories, mines and utilities was 37.7 per cent higher than the 1957-59 average. The reading was 137.0 in December.

Safety Belts Due Back Seats

DEARBORN, Mich. — Ford Motor Co. will begin factory installation of rear seat belts on all of its passenger cars effective with the start of 1966 model production, Henry Ford II, chairman of the board, has announced.

Two sets of belts will be installed for rear seat passengers unless individual customers or dealers specify otherwise. In January, 1964, Ford began equipping at the factory all of its cars with two sets of front seat belts unless customers or dealers asked they be deleted.

Freightwaay Earnings

SAN FRANCISCO — Consolidated Freightways has reported January earnings of $347,000, equal to 13 cents per share, on sales of $17,709,000. Both figures were well ahead of January, 1964, when earnings were $129,000, or 5 cents per share, on sales of $16,737,000.

Championship Boxing Twin Bill Set

NEW YORK (AP) — Willie Pastrano will defend his world light heavyweight title against Jose Torres and Emile Griffith will risk his welterweight crown against Jose Stable in a championship boxing doubleheader March 30 at Madison Square Garden.

Each will be a 15-round match with closed circuit television, Garden officials announced today.

Pastrano will be guaranteed 30 per cent or $100,000— with Torres guaranteeing the $100,000 in return for the title shot. Torres, Puerto Rican-born New Yorker, has a $10,000 guarantee in this first title doubleheader ever staged in the Garden.

Griffith, who was beaten by Manuel Gonzalez in a non- title bout in Houston Jan. 7, will get $70,000 or 30 per cent for his bout with Stable, a Cuban now fighting out of New York, Stable figures to get $10,000.

Garden officials hope to gross $150,000 at the arena with a $30 top price and add about as much to the promotional pot with the closed circuit television.

The action-packed heavyweight fight between Floyd Patterson and George Chuvalo, which may have started off a new boxing boom in New York, drew a standing room crowd of 19,100 and a gate of $166,423 at the Garden at a $20 top price.

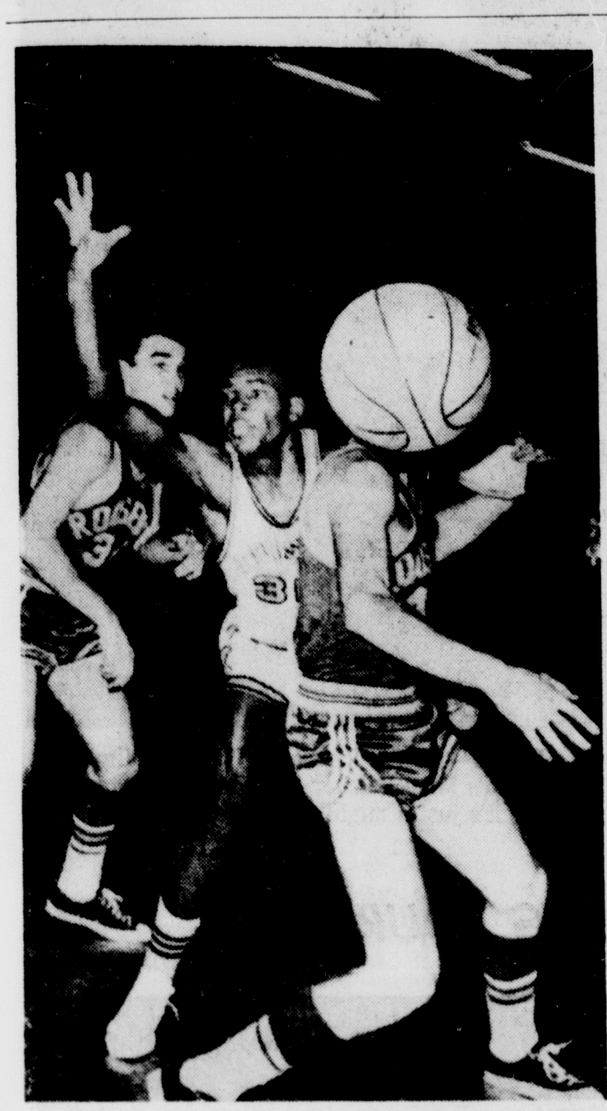

Two weeks later, middleweight Luis Rodriguez and Rubin (Hurricane) Carter lured a crowd of 10,806 and a gate of $44,780 at $8 tops.

Pastrano, 29, stopped Argentina's Gregorio Peralta and Britain's Terry Downes in title defenses last year after winning the title from Harold Johnson, June 1, 1963.

Griffith, 27, will be in his 11th title fight. He has won eight and lost two title fights, beating his two conquerors in return bouts.

MR. BASKETBALL HIMSELF

The look of astonishment on Jeff Ruby's face (left) and the look of perplexity by Ervin Hunt (center) is only natural when you consider this sight of a basketball substituting the head of Joe Schmidt. Ruby and Schmidt play for Roosevelt High School and Hunt for Edison High, both Fresno schools. Despite this neat ball trick by the Roosevelt cager, Edison won 63-45. (AP Wirephoto)

$100,000 For Mick; $70,000 For Aaron

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

For a while Hank Aaron didn't know where he was going to play. Mickey Mantle still doesn't.

The two homer hammerers—Mantle is seventh on the all-time list and Aaron 14th—signed their 1965 baseball contracts yesterday and took their usual places among the highest paid players in the game's history.

Mantle stepped into the No. 2 spot by agreeing to terms with the New York Yankees for an even $100,000. Aaron, who will be playing for the Braves in Milwaukee this year and Atlanta next, stepped up $10,000 to the $70,000 neighborhood.

That left San Francisco's Willie Mays the No. 1 in terms of salary with a $105,000 contract, Mantle in the runner-up spot and Aaron in the No. 3 neighborhood along with Yankee outfielder Roger Maris and pitcher Sandy Koufax of the Los Angeles Dodgers.

Mantle, however, doesn't yet know if he is going to earn his salary roaming in center field or playing right field.

"It doesn't make any difference to me," he said, explaining that new Manager Johnny Keane would probably make the decision during spring training.

Actually, I think center field is easier myself. The only thing Yogi Berra thought it would save my legs because I wouldn't have to run so much in right."

Mantle shifted to right field in the late stages of the 1964 season and handled that position during the World Series.

Mantle said it didn't bother him that his salary fell short of Mays' although it was rumored that the Yankees would offer $107,000 to their slugger to get him the No. 1 spot,

"As long as he gets $105,000 I don't mind being second," said the 33-year-old switch hitter. "I took what they offered and I'm happy."

So was Aaron.

"I thought I deserved a raise and I'm well satisfied," he said.

Asked about the leg injury that kept him idle most of September, Aaron said:

"I've run on it, and it didn't give me any trouble. I haven't done anything in the way of exercise this winter but I'm all ready. I'll be set when spring training begins."

Aaron, the leading active hitter with a .320 lifetime average, batted .328 last season with 24 homers and 95 runs batted in. During his 11 seasons with the Braves, he has hit 366 homers.

Mantle, who has a lifetime batting average of .309, hit .303 in 1964 with 35 homers and 111 RBI. He has hit 454 homers in his 14 seasons with the Yankees.

Murakami Battle Goes On And On

NEW YORK (AP) — Japanese pitcher Masanori Murakami, the object of an international dispute between two countries, "does not want to play in the United States," former Chicago White Sox pitcher Joe Stanka said today.

"We're not denying that Murakami signed with San Francisco," said Stanka. "But now that he's returned to Japan, he's homesick. He's an only son —that's very important in Japan—he's planning on getting married and he doesn't want to leave.

"It was his understanding that he would play for the Giants for only three months," Stanka explained. "Then he was misled into thinking the Japanese didn't want him and had decided to sell him, so he signed with the Giants.

"Then he returned home and found the Nankai team does want him. He enjoyed playing in the United States. But now he does not want to play in the United States."

That's the picture of the confused 20-year-old left-hander drawn by Stanka, a five-year veteran of Japanese baseball and a teammate of Murakami's on the Nankai Hawks. Stanka is in New York representing the Japanese in talks with U.S. Baseball Commissioner Ford Frick.

Stressing that the Hawks maintain they "have a right to him (Murakami) contractually and morally," Stanka said he feels the "moral issue is very important." He also pointed out that the Japanese baseball fan was watching the case with intense interest.

"They're taking it hard," he said. "They want to know if Murakami got into this trouble because someone in Japan made a mistake or on the other hand they want to know if the Americans are putting something over on them."

Stanka brought the moral issue front and center after meeting with Frick, who made no final decision on the case but maintained that the crux of the matter was "a contract is a contract and must be lived up to."

Frick said he would not make a final decision until he heard from the Japanese commissioner and then "I will approve or call off all negotiations with Japanese baseball."

Frick added that he has documentation showing "that the Giants purchased Murakmai. Now the Japanese are apparently putting pressure on him to stay over there."

There the controversy comes to rest again with the moral vs. contract issue unresolved while, in Japan, Murakami continues to work out with the Hawks and remains silent on the subject.

But, according to Stanka, he wants to remain in Japan, ending his fling in the major leagues with 15 innings pitched, a 1.80 earned run average and a perfect 1-0 record.

Michigan Keeps Its Top Spot

By BEN OLAN
Associated Press Sports Writer

Unbeaten Providence climbed into third place while improving Tennessee and Minnesota joined the Top Ten in the Associated Press' major-college basketball poll today.

The Michigan Wolverines, who won their 16th game in 18 starts last night by nipping Indiana 96-95 in double-overtime, continued to hold a commanding lead in the balloting by a special panel of 37 regional experts.

The Wolverines collected 23 votes for first place and 349 points, the latter on a basis of 10 for a first place vote, 9, for second etc. Michigan won two games last week, 81-66 over Iowa and 98-83 over Michigan State.

UCLA held second place with five first-place votes and 295 points. The Bruins, 18-2, downed Washington and Washington State in last week's action. The voting was based on games through last Saturday.

Providence, the nation's only unbeaten major team, advanced one place after lifting its record to 18-0 with victories over St. Francis, Pa., and Duquesne. The Friars were named the top team on five ballots and picked up 266 points over-all.

St. Joseph's, Pa., fell back a notch to fourth although it boosted its mark to 21-1 by beating Albright and Temple. The Hawks' lone setback was to Providence.

Davidson and Duke held fifth and sixth places, respectively. Both won three games last week, the Wildcats lifting their record to 21-1 and the Blue Devils to 16-2.

Indiana moved up one place to seventh on the strength of victories over Michigan State and Northwestern. The Hoosiers are 15-3 after their loss to Michigan.

Tennessee soared to eighth place after beating Vanderbilt. The Vols, 17-2 over-all, lead the Southeastern Conference with a 9-1 slate. Minnesota rushed up to grab the No. 9 position. The Gophers trimmed Illinois 105-90.

The losses suffered by Vanderbilt and Illinois dropped each from the rankings. Vandy was seventh a week ago and Illinois 10th.

Wichita, ninth last week, fell to 10th after losing to Duquesne 75-72. The Shockers rebounded to beat Cincinnati last Saturday and edged Chicago Loyola 80-77 last night for a 16-4 mark.

Marichal Certain Of Agreement

SANTO DOMINGO (AP) — Juan Marichal, 21-game winner with the San Francisco Giants last season, said today he was so certain of reaching an agreement with the National League baseball club that he was leaving soon for Mesa, Ariz., and a series of hot bath treatments.

The right-handed pitcher recently returned unsigned the club's first contract for the coming season.

Marichal said he was leaving for the Arizona spa at the suggestion of the club physician. He was out several weeks last season with a back ailment.

Marichal inferred he had made a personal agreement with Horace Stoneham, the Giants' president, who recently visited the Dominican Republic.

USF, Bears Have Week's Top Stars

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—When University of San Francisco basketball coach Pete Peletta thinks 20-20, he gets a vision of his center Ollie Johnson.

"He doesn't say much," says Peletta of the 6-foot-8 Johnson, "but his statistics tell the story. He's been consistent all year getting those 20 rebounds and 20 points."

Johnson was honored yesterday by the Northern California Basketball Writers Association along with California's Mike Henderson as co-players-of the week.

The Dons of USF appear to have the West Coast Athletic Association title all but wrapped up with a 7-0 record.

Johnson won his honor for play against Loyola and Pepperdine last weekend. Henderson scored 42 points in two nights as California beat Oregon and Oregon State and opposing centers scored only one field goa' against him.

California, with a 3-5 record in the Pacific Athletic Conference, and Stanford, 5-3, invade the Northwest this weekend. The Bears of Cal plays at Washington State on Friday night and then at Washington.

Stanford plays at Washington and then at Washington State in the Saturday afternoon regionally televised game.

San Jose State and Santa Clara open the week's WCAC action tonight with the USF-San Jose game on Thursday and Santa Clara playing at UC Santa Barbara the same night.

On Friday night, Santa Clara plays a non-conference game at the University of San Diego, University of the Pacific is at Loyola, and St. Mary's at Pepperdine.

Saturday's slate list St. Mary's at Loyola, USF at UCSB and UOP at Pepperdine.

Halas Says AFL-NFL Tilt In 'Near Future'

PALM DESERT, Calif. (AP) —There will be a meeting of the National and American Football League teams in the "near future" in the opinion of one of the strongest owners-coaches of the old established NFL, George Halas of the Chicago Bears.

Halas, who laughs at his title as the junior-elder statesman of the NFL—actually he is the eldest statesman — expressed this opinion as the NFL plunged into its formal meeting.

Halas, one of the founders of the league, would not pinpoint the exact year of any NFL-AFL confrontation, but he did say it was inevitable in the not too-distant future.

Would it be ten years, five years?

"Just say in the near future," said old papa bear, who has shepherded the Bears as well as the National League through decades of their history.

There has been no indication from Commissioner Pete Rozelle that the league has any idea playing the AFL either an exhibition or championship game, and there is also no indication that anything of this nature will transpire at the current NFL meeting.

The NFL policy apparently is, as it has been in the past years, that the AFL doesn't exist.

The formal league meeting got under way today with several issues under consideration. Included were such rules changes as reducing the penalty for grabbing a mask in a game from 15 yards to five yards.

Mr. Halas made it plain that he is against any reduction of reducing such a penalty. He said he feels strongly that the offense of yanking a mask of an opposing player is one of the most dangerous infractions of the rules involving equipment.

The National Football League regular schedule will open the weekend of Sept. 19, a week later than usual, and the championship game will be Jan. 2, 1966, with the Western Division winner the host.

There will be an open date Dec. 26 for a possible playoff in either or both of the two divisions of the NFL.

The latest start of the season will facilitate scheduling the latter part of the season and will also eliminate one week of conflict with the baseball season where NFL games are played in major league baseball parks.

As tentatively set, the playoff Bowl between the runnersup in the two divisions will be Jan. 9 at Miami, Fla., and the Pro Bowl game will be at Los Angeles Jan. 16.

The All-Star Game at Chicago, which features the seniors of the 1964 college season and the champion Cleveland Browns, is set for Aug. 6 at Chicago.

The Columbia Broadcasting System, according to sports director Bill McPhail, will telecast nine pre-season NFL games, as well as all regular season games, to which CBS has exclusive telecast rights.

Golfer Wins On His Home Course

Paul O'Kane, a member of the Peacock Gap golfing staff, won the Northern California Assistant Professional Golfers Assn. monthly tourney yesterday on his home course.

He shot a two-under-par 69 to win. Bobby Lunn of San Francisco and Felix Claveran of Stockton tied for second with 71's.

The best ball twosome event was won by Lunn and Fred Smith with a 66, and O'Kane and Tony Manzoni finished second with a 67.

TIME CHANGED FOR KEY PREP CAGE CONTEST

The key Marin Athletic League basketball game Friday between Redwood and San Rafael high schools has been changed from 4 p.m. to 8 p.m., it was announced today by Redwood coach Dick Hart.

Hart said too many persons wanted to see the game and wouldn't be able to do so if it was played as a day contest.

Redwood is leading the league with a 6-1 record, and San Rafael has a 5-2 mark, so this game should do a lot in deciding the champion for 1965. Friday's action will start with the Class B game at 7 o'clock, followed by the varsity teams.

Marin Ice Hockey Teams Lose Two

Raydine's ice hockey teams from San Anselmo lost a pair of matches over the past weekend.

The Ice Hawks lost to Walnut Creek, 3-1, Saturday in San Anselmo, and then Sunday in Berkeley, the Huskies were blanked 4-0 by the Berkeley Pee Wee "A" team.

Dave Bonbright scored the lone Raydine goal in that 3-1 loss.

San Rafael National Li'l League To Meet

The San Rafael National Little League will hold a meeting tomorrow night at 8 o'clock in the kindergarten room of San Pedro School.

Parents of boys 9 through 12 are urged to attend, according to league officials.

Warriors Vs. Detroit In S.F. Tonight

The San Francisco Warriors, who traded away center Wilt Chamberlain, may have trouble finding a replacement for The Stilt tonight as they meet the Detroit Pistons at Civic Auditorium in San Francisco.

The Warriors have two men who can play center. But, it's uncertain whether either will be available.

Big Nate Thurmond, who took over the regular center spot, is ailing with a sore back. And, coach Alex Hannum says, "I'm not going to take any more chances with Nate. If his back is bothering him at all, I won't play him against the Pistons."

That leaves Connie Dierking next in line for the pivot slot.

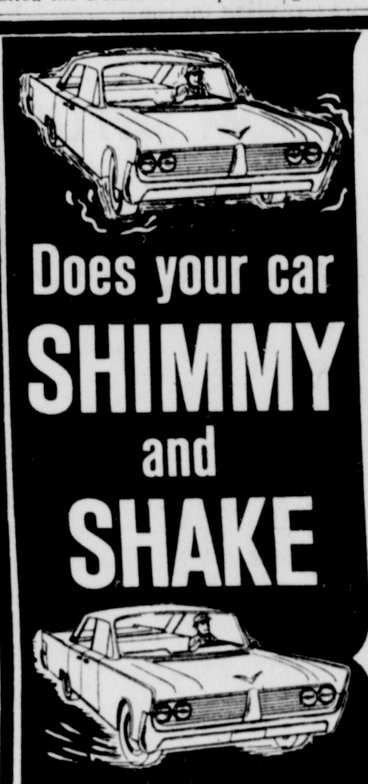

Connie is expected to be on hand for the Piston National Basketball Association contest, although his father-in-law died in Cincinnati last Saturday. Dierking flew to Ohio to be with his wife, who is expecting.

However, on the positive side, Hannum says his new approach —the fast break—is beginning to shape up under play-maker Guy Rodger. When Chamberlain was with the Warriors, their plays revolved around the big center.

"Guy's play in the last few weeks has been the greatest I've ever seen," said Hannum. "He has made passes that had to be seen to be believed."

Rodgers has been passing well and has been averaging nearly 20 points a game in the last eight contests.

ARA PAYS THE PRICE OF SUCCESS

By RALPH CHATOIAN

Success is great, but the demand it puts on you is best illustrated by the hectic nine days that lie ahead of Ara Parseghian, co-coach of the year from Notre Dame.

Parseghian, along with other top grid coaches in the nation, was one of the feature attractions at the Coach of the Year football conference held over the weekend at the Jack Tar Hotel in San Francisco. The conference, under the management of Redwood High School athletic director Bob Troppmann, was attended by almost 1,000 coaches from throughout Northern California.

Starting today, Parseghian will be on a speaking tour that would rival the barnstorming of the Harlem Globetrotters. It's all in the price of success.

It reads this way:

Chicago Tuesday, Indiana Wednesday, Ohio Thursday, Detroit Friday, Washington D.C. Saturday, Atlanta, Ga., Sunday, Buffalo, N.Y., Monday, Elmira, N.Y., Tuesday, and Pittsburgh, Pa., Wednesday and Thursday.

And it's like that all the time for this enthusiastic Armenian coach. What does it do to his family life? What does his wife think about all this travel away from home for Ara while she stays home with the three children, 10, 13 and 14?

"She takes it quite well," he said. "She understands this is just part of success." He said this with such a matter-of-fact way, not at all sounding a braggart. He talks with fact, and being named Coach of the Year is about as successful as you can be in this field.

He said that since the final Notre Dame game against USC, he hasn't been home with his family for more than three days in a row. It has been speaking engagement after engagement. "It is just fantastic," he exclaimed.

All this was said between his trip from the speakers' platform in the conference room to the elevator. And in between there were the coaches who wanted autographs for their kids and other coaches who wanted to remind him about a prep star who was trying to get into Notre Dame.

The price of success is demanding. It seems Ara won't be able to relax until football season begins. It seems sort of backwards, but that's how it is today, with football clinics to Rotary Club conventions. They all want a winner.

The FISHIN' FOOL

By RALPH STEVENS
I-J Fish and Game Writer

Salmon Reports Range From Fair To Excellent; Lot Of Sturgeon

STEVENS

Success is a matter of viewpoint. To many fishermen who opened the salmon season on Saturday, fishing was "spotty;" to others it was good; to a few it was excellent. To Skipper Hal Miller of the boat "Phil Ray" it was OK. Fifteen salmon were netted on the "Phil Ray" to 14 pounds. (Two different contacts reported the "Phil Ray" catch). So we can bank on the report being kosher.

Reporting the results boat by boat from Lee Anderson's shop in Oakland — The Sea Horse landed 8 salmon to 10 pounds; Seabee, 4 to 8 pounds;; Lucky Day, an even dozen to 9 pounds; the Ge Ge had 5 to 12 pounds; The Lancer 8 to 10 pounds (only 7 rods); Wilma H, 8 to 8 pounds; Rowland R, 7 to 10 pounds, and the Ino brought in 6 to 12 pounds (six rods). Not the best report, admittedly, but not the worst, by a long shot. The above boats fished three fairly good areas: Duxbury Reef, Light Ship, and one boat, the Lucky Day, caught fish at the Towers.

FROM TONY CARUSO's Sausalito Harbor the word was "An average of 6 fish per boat with the top boat listing 11 salmon to 16 pounds. That boat was the Silver Spray. Caruso reported a private boat taking a 33-pounder from Duxbury Reef. Another angler brought in a 26-pounder from Duxbury, also.

The chances are that the majority of salmon caught Saturday were silversides, judging by the weights. Seldom is a silver of more than 16 pounds caught. There is a way of telling the difference between a silver and Chinook, but who wants to find out? A salmon is a salmon is a salmon. Right?

Tony Caruso also gave a nice bag report, honoring Michael Comroy for landing a 17 pound bass in Broad Slough.

THE STATUS QUO on striper striving is about on a par with last week's production. Grace Quan of China Camp reported fishing actually good. Not so hot for quantity, but quite good for quality. About 36 bags came in on Saturday. "None under 12 pounds!" reported Grace. It seems that the fish are congregated in more shallow water at present. Special mention to Ray Herkson and sons, for landing three sturgeon and one bass of 15 pounds. Joe Nerviani of Joe's Launching reported fishing spotty at best, Saturday 30 bass were unloaded; all of good size, from 12 to 26 pounds. "A mess of sharks and stingrays, particularly in the shallow water," said Joe.

From Hayward Fisheries came a nice report of "Four men in a boat, Earl Hastings, Bill Thorne, Bill Groth and Gary Croth, taking limits from the Rodeo area—11½ to 20½ pounds.

Sturgeon are still around. More so than ever. One boat out of Crockett, the Happy Days No. 3, came in with 14 to an average of 40 pounds—big job trying to top the recent Gus Reid catch of 105 pounds.

HAYWARD FISHERIES also reported Al Paladini taking a 21-pound, 10-ounce striper.

Joe Wun, Sportsmen's Center, reported that a large number of his regular customers shoved off for a bout with clams, so we should have some news of clamming in our next issue. Until then, goodbye, good luck and got get 'em!

World Table Tennis

LJUBLJANA, Yugoslavia (AP) — The United States will be among 48 countries taking part in the 28th World Table Tennis Championships here April 15-25, it was announced today.

Notes From Around Marin's Outdoors

The Marin Conservation Council will award a trophy to "the person most responsible for furthering the cause of conservation in 1964" at a dinner at the Marin Rod and Gun clubhouse Feb. 27.

Each member group of the council will nominate one person for the honor. The winner will get the trophy, donated by the Independent-Journal, and the other nominees will receive recognition from Radio Station KTIM.

Member clubs of the council are Belvedere-Tiburon Landmarks Society, California Alpine Club, Homestead Valley Improvement Club, Louise A. Boyd Natural Science Museum, Marin Audubon Society, Marin Conservation League, Marin Rod and Gun Club, Sierra Club, Tamalpais Conservation Club, Outdoor Art Club and Marin Federation of Improvement Clubs.

Judging will be done by Dr. Virgil Hollis, county superintendent of schools; Willis Evans, of the state division of fish and game, and Kelvin Nelson, county director of parks and recreation.

Speakers for the evening will include William P. Mott Jr., of the East Bay Regional Park District; Samuel Wood, executive director of "California Tomorrow;" and Edward Z'Berg, assemblyman from Sacramento.

Judge Leonard Thomas, Barney DeBisschop and George Rubissow are co-chairman of the event. Tickets at $5 each may be obtained from Paul Ware at 14 Taylor Street, San Rafael, or by mail from A'leen Runkle at Post Office Box 267, Mill Valley.

Barney DeBisschop Wins S.F. Honor

Barney DeBisschop of San Anselmo, a past president of both the Marin Rod and Gun Club and Tyee Club of San Francisco, was awarded the Conservationist of the Year trophy by the Tyee Club.

Presentation was made Saturday night at the club's annual awards dinner in San Francisco. DeBisschop is employed at Free-Minetti Sporting Goods Co. in San Francisco.

The list of DeBisschop's conservation achievements is a long one and his activities have not been confined to Marin County, as is evidenced by the award made by the Tyee Club which covers the entire Bay Area. That organization is considered the outstanding salmon conservation club in the nation.

Monthly Dinners Will Be Resumed

Monthly family dinners will be resumed by the Marin Rod and Gun Club Saturday at the clubhouse at Point San Quentin, under the leadership of Ray Augusto.

A social hour is scheduled from 6 to 7 p. m., followed by the dinner. Marin Rod and Gun Club members may get tickets for themselves and guests and make reservation by calling secretary Paul Ware of San Rafael.

Tickets can also be obtained from sports shop in San Rafael. Price is $2 for adults and $1 for children.

Accommodations are limited, said Augusto, and members are urged to reserve their places as soon as possible.

Knot Tying At Auxiliary Meet

Jerry Walling will demonstrate knot tying at the next meeting of the Ladies Auxiliary of the Marin Rod and Gun Club, Feb. 23, 8 p. m., at the clubhouse at Point San Quentin.

Mrs. Gladys Bernard, newly installed president of the auxiliary, has announced committee chairmen for the year. They are Regina Buchanan, bulletin; Daisy Briscoe, conservation; Emmabell Herak, scholarship; Estelle Peterson, press and historian; Ruth Smith, fishing; Virginia Sapp, hostess and awards; Vivian Ritlaw and Roberta Sturges, refreshments; Mae Sutherland, program, and Lea Lamperti, friendship.

New members welcomed into the auxiliary last month were Betty Currey and Clara Schoonover, both of San Rafael.

One of Mrs. Smith's first announcements was a fishing party that is slated Feb. 18, starting at 10 a. m., at the pier.

TRIGGER And REEL

(A Monthly Page Published In Cooperation With The Marin Rod and Gun Club)

Urges Support Of McAteer Bill

Coleman Persily, legislative director of the Marin Rod and Gun Club, will recommend the club's active support of the McAteer Bill for the creation of a San Francisco Bay Conservation and Development Commission.

The bill has been introduced at the current session of the State Legislature and has won the endorsement in principal of the Marin County Board of Supervisors.

It is expected that MRGC Conservation Committee will solicit support of the Marin Conservation Council, Persily stated.

Elsie Ware Again Wins Club Award

While John Sterling was top money winner at the Marin Rod and Gun Club's last meeting, Elsie Ware finished in the money for the third time when she took second place attendance award. Third place went to Bill Williams.

Marinites Tapped For Archery Posts

Three Marin residents have been nominated to lead the Northern California Field Archery Assn. (NCFAA) in 1965. They are: Fred Del Pino of San Anselmo nominated for president (unopposed), Patty Makinson of Novato nominated for membership secretary and Dick Valentine nominated for vice president.

The NCFAA is the second largest regional Archery Association in the state. It is composed of 14 archery clubs with a combined membership of around 2,500 bowmen and their families.

Rod-Gun Meeting Slated Friday

The February membership meeting of the Marin Rod and Gun Club will be held at the club's hall this Friday evening. The regular business meeting starting at 8 o'clock will be followed by an interesting outdoor motion picture to be shown by Leo Ciucci.

Conservation Week To Be Observed

The Marin Rod and Gun Club will join with the Marin County Council of Boy Scouts of America in a program supporting National Conservation Week scheduled March 14-20.

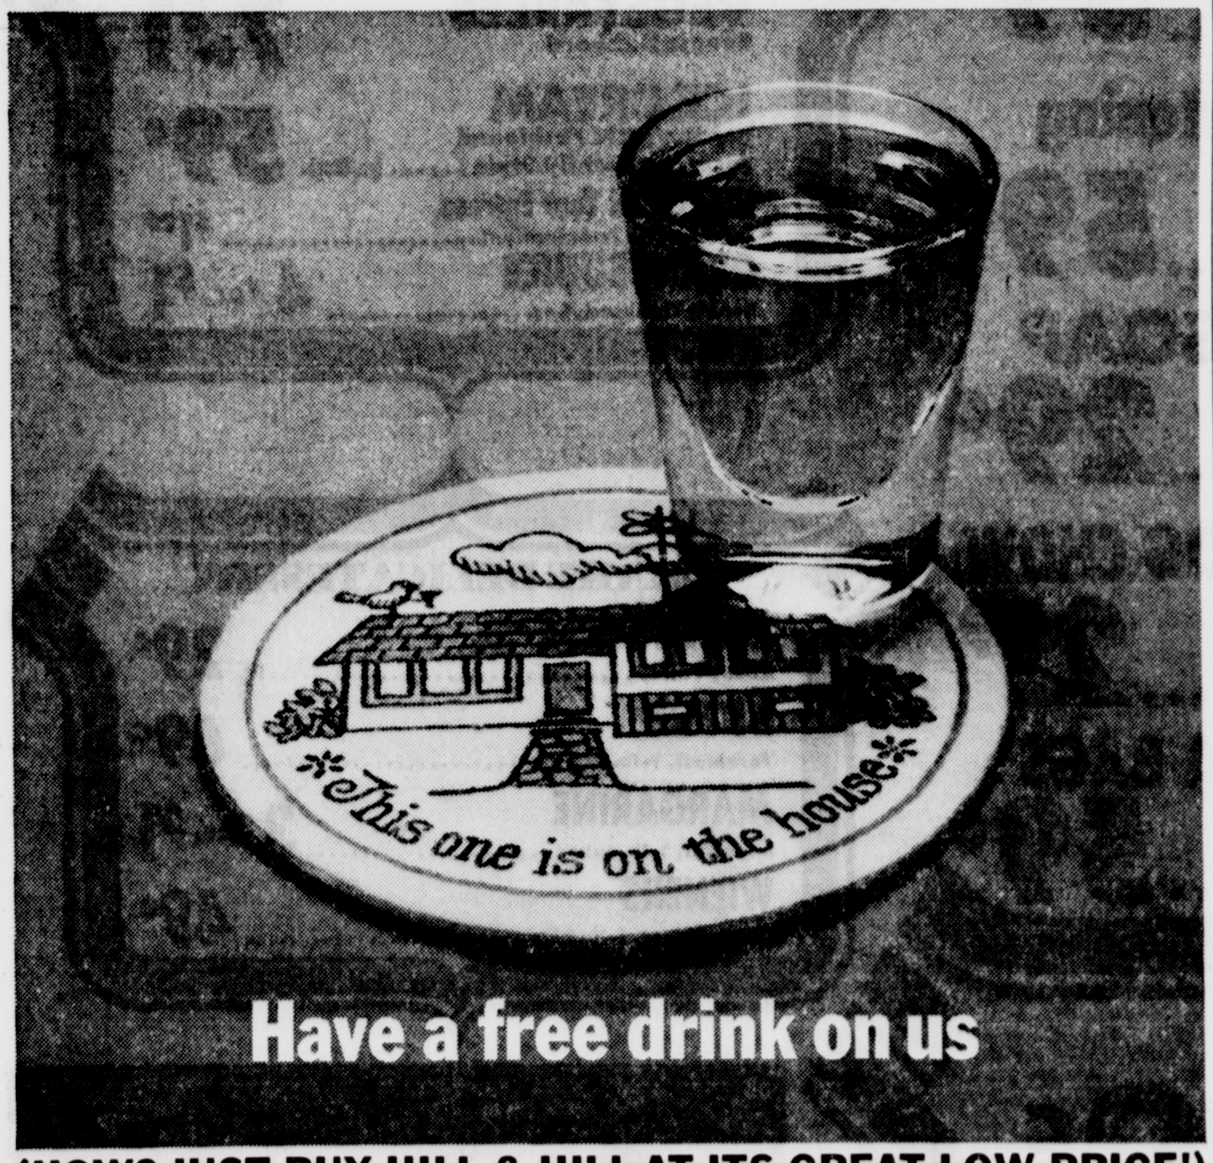

Al Ferarri and Charles Graham of the sportsmen's club will work with Paul Dunn who heads the County Boy Scout Council.

In the plans are conservation activities for all scouts from the Cubs to the Eagle Scouts and the Sea Scouts. Education, field work and public displays are contemplated.

Great Demand For Marin Fish Maps

Ever since mention in the Independent-Journal of the availability of Marin fishing maps through Paul Ware, secretary of the Marin Rod and Gun Club, the latter has been swamped by requests.

The supply is running out of the first edition and the rod and gun club is faced with the question of whether or not to print 5,000 more. The map was first published with a list of favorite Marin fishing spots in the I-J of June 11, 1964. The rod and gun club used the map as a cover for a brochure on the history and activities of the club and demand for it has exceeded all expectations.

Bringing Up Baby®

HINTS COLLECTED BY MRS. DAN GERBER, MOTHER OF 5

When baby is young about the only discipline you can impose is to establish regular sleeping and eating patterns. But when baby reaches the year-old stage you can begin to regulate his behavior to keep him from getting out of hand. But remember to make sure that your tyke is capable of understanding what you want and why you want it. Remember, too, that good behavior is best taught by example. A toddler learns faster by imitation than by rules he doesn't understand.

Dan Gerber on Nutrition. "One of our most important Nutrition Research projects was measuring the amount of vitamin $B_{12}$ in any given food. (That's the vitamin needed for good red blood cells and the utilization of protein, carbohydrates and fat.) After 3 years' experimentation, our experts developed an effective method for measuring this hard-to-check vitamin. This makes it possible for us to see that your baby gets all the vitamin $B_{12}$ the food is supposed to have. Projects like this are standard procedure. So when you buy Gerber, you're sure of your money's worth in nourishment."

Table talk. Toddler table manners should not be stressed until your child is reasonably skillful at handling his spoon. It's hard enough to make a spoon behave without the burden of learning manners at the same time.

Hygiene hint. If you make a special point of washing your toddler's hands before every meal, he'll come to accept this routine naturally. A small towel that he can call his very own adds a sense of pride to the ritual.

•

Dept. of utter bliss. Gerber Strained and Junior Fruits are an open invitation to smiles and lip-smacking. Easy to understand why, too. Gerber Fruits are famous for colors that literally sing and flavors as close to Mother Nature's sun-kissed best as you can get them. That's because they're flash-cooked in seconds to preserve true colors and flavors. Flash-cooking also helps protect the precious vitamins that contribute so much to baby's well-being. # Toughening Of Brown Act Deserves Public Support

New legislation by Assemblyman Milton Marks, R-San Francisco, to plug loopholes in the anti-secret meeting law, deserves full public support.

Marks' bill is an outgrowth of extensive studies and hearings conducted by the Assembly Interim Committee on Government Organization, which he heads.

Assemblyman William T. Bagley, R-San Rafael, who is a member of that committee, foresees widespread acceptance of the new measure.

"We have already established the concept of open meetings," Bagley noted. "This is fully accepted. Now we are going through the second period of refinement, filling in the gaps and loopholes."

The Ralph M. Brown Act, passed in 1953, was a milestone in guaranteeing open meetings by public bodies. But as with most laws, there were loopholes which were used to get around the open meeting requirement.

The key points are these:

1. Opinion has been divided on whether the Brown Act applies to committees and subcommittees which do not consist of a quorum of the local legislative body. A two-man subcommittee of a five-member city council would be one example.

The new measure plainly specifies that such subcommittee meetings are clearly to be open to the public.

2. The Brown Act permits closed meetings to hire or fire or hear charges against a public officer or employee. The public officer or employee, however, may ask for an open hearing. But this second point is not spelled out too clearly.

The new measure would require that the officer or employee be notified of his right to an open meeting. If an executive session is held without the person involved being notified of his right to an open meeting, then any action taken (at the closed session) would be void.

3. The Brown Act did not specifically provide closed sessions to discuss pending litigation to which the public agency is a party.

The new law would add this provision: The public agency may hold an executive session to consult with counsel (a) only if such consultation relates to litigation in which the agency is a party and (b) only when public disclosure of the matters considered would be detrimental to public interest.

In other words, "possible future litigation" cannot be used as an excuse for closed meetings.

4. The Brown Act applies to local legislative bodies but does not specifically cover meetings of state agencies. The new measure would require open meetings of state boards and commissions unless otherwise provided by law.

Other sections of the new law deal with TV and radio coverage of open meetings, public access to records, and procedures that must be followed for executive sessions.

The California Newspaper Publishers Assn. has adopted a strong resolution supporting Assemblyman Marks' proposals.

We join in urging passage of the measure and pledge continued vigilance in safeguarding the public's right to know what their representatives are doing.

CUT RED TAPE

Judges Seek Ways To Keep Civil Matters From Tying Courts Up

By EDWIN S. CAPPS

SACRAMENTO (CNS) — Superior Judge William A. Munnell of Los Angeles County was at the Capitol last week and, as is usual with judges who come to town, he was asked facetiously if the judges were looking for another pay raise.

Munnell is a former assemblyman from Montebello and, for two sessions of the legislature, was Democratic leader in the lower house.

JUDGES HAVE a lot of influence in the Legislature, possibly because so many judges are former legislators. And, quite often, when they do come to town, a pay raise for the judges is in the wind.

But that wasn't Munnell's purpose.

"The judges are well satisfied with their salaries," Munnell said. "The raise voted last year has had a very good effect and they are trying harder than ever to keep up with the workload."

MUNNELL SAID there were some who felt there should be more judges but his real purpose in Sacramento was to seek some changes in the law which might speed up the judicial procedure. He was referring primarily to civil cases.

The main point of the law changes Munnell and the other judges are seeking would be means to cut away red tape in possible settlement of civil matters out of court.

"I haven't tried a case in six weeks," Munnell said. "I've been able to get, first the attorneys, then their clients, together in my chamber and have reached settlements. Perhaps my means have been unorthodox.

"HOWEVER, I'VE told the attorneys that we will discuss their case frankly and, if they do not reach an agreement, they may have their case transferred to another court and I would secure them a priority in that court," he said. "In many of the personal injury cases, there may be a reluctance of the attorneys or clients to settle for the stipulated amounts but they agree when they see what the record for jury awards is."

Naturally, Munnell is not willing to see any safeguards or rights removed from the law to expedite court procedures. But there are a number of changes, largely technical and lawyers' talk, that could be made.

As it is, Munnell said the backlog in Los Angeles County has been cut by more than two-thirds. A diligent lawyer now can get a case to court in six months, while the average is eight or nine months.

ONLY A FEW years ago, the average waiting time for civil cases was two years. Criminal cases, under the law, must go to trial within 60 days, unless the defendant waives his right to the speedy trial.

"We now have 120 judges in the Los Angeles Superior Court," Munnell said. "While there are those who feel more judges would be the answer, we actually could reduce the number of judges if there could be some changes made in rules of evidence that might speed up the procedure and cut the red tape."

Home owners in Las Gallinas and Lucas Valley protested what they termed a "back door attempt" to force their entry into Las Gallinas Sanitary District.

Ambulance Firm Clarifies Story

Editor, Independent-Journal:

I am taking the time to write you in order to clarify some omissions and errors contained in your story of Feb. 10, 1965, regarding the accident involving our ambulance.

First of all, the ambulance which was damaged in the accident was not the sole ambulance owned by this company. We own another Cadillac ambulance which is in the process of having a new engine put into it. Furthermore, the injured individual, Ronald J. Green Jr., is in my employment and was riding as steward in the ambulance, not in the other vehicle as reported by your newspaper. Although it is true that the ambulance was making a U-turn on Highway 101, it should be pointed out that the turn was made at the intersection of Lamont Ave. with Highway 101.

In conclusion and in fairness to my driver, it is noteworthy he was not cited by the California Highway Patrol for any illegal procedure.

Lamb-Eagle Justice Branded Inequality

Editor, Independent-Journal:

I have always known of the inequality of our laws. However, the current situation concerning the Point Reyes rancher makes one even more aware.

It seems to be perfectly permissible to shoot a trespasser on one's property, particularly one who is intent on stealing your possessions. You can even get away with running over people in your car, drunk or sober. Admission of guilt to stealing brings a small fine and reprimand. But this man, who was protecting his own, is being put to expense and notoriety! What, pray tell, would have happened had this been a small baby that was carried into the air by these "rare and precious eagles"? Would he still have had to request permission in writing to shoot them down. I say "hog wash."

It must make an honest law officer sick and disgusted to see this sort of thing going on, when day after day men with criminal intent go scot free!

I only hope that the official who hears this case uses not only the law as a yardstick, but a little of the common ordinary brain matter that seems to be so lacking in our society of today.

Unification Savings Argument Doubted

Editor, Independent-Journal:

One of the strong arguments advanced to promote the formation of very large unified school districts in Marin County is that such re-organization reduces administrative costs.

The recently unified Novato School District already has an administrative staff considerably larger than the combined staffs of the former Novato and San Jose districts, as reported in the I-J recently.

Your issue of Feb. 10 reports the results of a detailed study by the staffs of the San Rafael and Dixie districts, showing that a unification of these two districts will result in higher, rather than lower, costs.

All of us, whether we favor moderate or extensive unification proposals, want the funds available for education to be spent as wisely as possible. This implies concentrating expenditures on personnel and equipment directly involved in teaching our children, while minimizing administrative expenses.

These expenses do not necessarily decrease as size increases.

Unification can result in more effective school districts, if properly limited and controlled.

Rabies Quarantine Loopholes Noted

Editor, Independent-Journal:

The regulations of the Marin County Board of Health regarding quarantine of animals are in need of explanation and possibly change, it seems to me.

Four years ago I found a male kitten badly maltreated and in need of medical attention. . . . We now have a full-grown cat living with us.

Despite the fact that the cat had obviously been abused, he never displayed anything but the gentlest of treatment toward us, our dog, and the numerous neighborhood children who frequent our home.

Recently someone unknown to us in our neighborhood identified our cat, one of at least seven in three adjacent houses, as that which had attacked and bitten her the previous a.m., 1 o'clock to be exact. We were dubious about the positive identity considering the cat's habitual disposition, the darkness, the number from which she had to choose for identity. . . . Nevertheless, shortly thereafter an official of the Humane Society visited us requesting us to keep our cat quarantined for a 15-day period under observation for rabies.

Not having studied veterinary techniques of late, we were alarmed for several reasons. First of all, our cat's identity as the attacker had not been positively established, and secondly, if the cat were rabid, what would prevent it from attacking us or our visitors?

We nevertheless complied. . . . We were rewarded for our services with a bill from the Board of Health for quarantining the cat on someone's accusation.

With the many animals that roam the Mill Valley hills, it seems to me that some specific procedure should be followed to satisfy safety regulations as well as unhappy owners. Wherever possible, positive identity should be established before committing an animal to quarantine which in itself should be conducted within the confines of the Humane Society so that the animal is properly observed in case it should in actuality have rabies. In such a case, a bill would be in order, but I do not wish to pay for services rendered when those services have been rendered by me.

TRY AND STOP ME

BENNETT CERF

THE LATE Sinclair (Red) Lewis, author of "Main Street" and "Arrowsmith," spent his last night in my house. At dinner, he explained to my wife and myself that he would have to retire early, since he was scheduled to board his boat for Italy at eight the following morning.

While we were having coffee, the phone rang. It was William Faulkner, arrived unexpectedly in New York. "Can I ask Bill to come over?" I inquired of Lewis. "No, you cannot," snapped Red. "Haven't you been a publisher long enough to know that you don't bring two of your big authors together at any time? This is my night. Tell Faulkner you'll see him tomorrow."

That's how it was arranged. Soon after Lewis went upstairs to bed, but about an hour later my wife and I were alarmed to hear him shouting, "Bennett! Bennett!"

I rushed into the hall to call up, "What's the matter, Red?"

"Nothing at all," he answered mollified. "I just wanted to make sure you hadn't sneaked off to see Faulkner!"

THE MANAGER of a new motel off Broadway is determined that decorum will be the rule there as long as he has anything to say about the matter. Asked recently by a pretty blonde if she could wait for her fiance in the lobby, he answered curtly, "You may—provided you already know who he is!"

This Is What It's Like Trying To Get News At White House

WASHINGTON (AP)—This is a short story which could be called "An Afternoon at George E. Reedy's Place" or better, maybe, "An Afternoon at Lyndon B. Johnson's Place."

Reedy is President Johnson's press secretary.

HE BRIEFS the press for Johnson except on those days when the president holds an open news conference, which isn't often. So these meetings with Reedy for most reporters most of the time are their only link with Johnson.

There are exceptions. Johnson frequently calls in certain newsmen and talks to them for background which means they can say what he said so long as they don't say he said it.

The lobby last Wednesday was jammed with reporters waiting for the word from Reedy because Wednesday was an unusual day, and they were very serious.

JOHNSON HAD called his National Security Council into emergency session because earlier the Communist guerrillas in South Viet Nam had really cut some capers.

Over the weekend, after they had attacked an American airbase, Johnson ordered a bomber raid on North Viet Nam in retaliation. This was truly tit-for-tat although the White House explained it more stiffly: "The response was appropriate and fitting."

Then in a clear effort to test the American will to go on helping the South Vietnamese resist the Reds, the guerrillas made blazing attacks Wednesday throughout Viet Nam, even blowing up an American billet.

SO THE REPORTERS in the lobby had only one question on their minds: What would Johnson and the National Security Council do now to meet this new test?

Reedy called in the newsmen at 4 p.m. but it was a big bust. He would only say what everyone knew: That the situation in Viet Nam was "receiving the closest attention."

The reporters pelted Reedy with questions to try to loosen him up but he wouldn't budge and nobody was mad at him. He couldn't say more than Johnson wanted him to say.

AT LAST, WITH a brief "thank you," the reporters burst into the lobby on their way to phones or their coats. And at that very instant Johnson burst out of another door and strode across the lobby.

At top speed he went out the door opening on the White House grounds. The reporters forgot their phones and their coats and went after him.

Johnson's timing was amazing. He had emerged at the best possible moment to get the most attention from the most reporters, in fact, all the reporters, although there is no evidence to support this kind of speculation here:

THAT REEDY'S office is bugged — meaning it is equipped with a listening device that enables Johnson to sit in his office and hear what goes in Reedy's briefings. The White House has disclaimed any such bugging.

Johnson walked fast up one White House walk and fast back down another, all of it taking no more than five minutes, with perhaps a hundred newsmen trotting around and behind him. He led them like the Pied Piper and then disappeared indoors again.

The newsmen got nothing from him, either. He said no more than Reedy. But when they got back to their phones they reported he had walked around the White House yard in a "relaxed fashion."

AND MAYBE that was his sole reason for what he did: To give the impression to the country, the Russians, the Red Chinese and the Vietnamese guerrillas that he was taking everything in stride, relaxed.

If this was the reason, he chose a very dramatic way to show the situation was undramatic.

Lack Of Viet Guards Reason For Death Toll

By ROBERT S. ALLEN and PAUL SCOTT

WASHINGTON—Deeply embedded in the latest Viet Nam crisis is a long-standing inner administration controversy over assigning U.S. combat forces to guard U.S. military training personnel, planes, airfields, barracks and other vulnerable installations.

Had this been done, as strongly advised by the Joint Chiefs of Staff months ago, there is every reason to believe the surprise Viet Cong attack on the Pleiku air base, with the heavy toll in dead and wounded, would not have occurred.

More than six months ago Gen. William Westmoreland, U.S. commander in South Viet Nam, after a first-hand inspection, urgently recommended that a large contingent of Marines or Army special forces be sent there expressly to protect U.S. personnel and important installations.

Ambassador Maxwell Taylor, fully concurring in this proposal, communicated it immediately to Secretary of State Dean Rusk and Defense Secretary Robert McNamara.

THEY TURNED it down — over the opposition of the Joint Chiefs of Staff.

President Lyndon B. Johnson sided with Rusk and McNamara, and nothing was done about menacing weakness.

Several months later, in a surprise hit-run attack on the Bien Hoa air field, a large force of Viet Cong inflicted considerable personnel and bomber losses.

SUCCESS OF this costly Communist blow was due wholly to inadequate guard elements.

This major air base was protected only by a small South Vietnamese unit and some Air Force troops armed with carbines and pearl-handled pistols. They had no infantry training, heavy weapons or armored vehicles to meet artillery and mortar fire.

During this assault, the Reds fired more than 110 mortar shells.

General Westmoreland and Ambassador Taylor renewed their request for special security troops—but again to no avail.

SECRETARIES Rusk and McNamara vetoed sending Marines or Army combat troops to South Viet Nam on the ground that might "escalate" the anti-Communist struggle into a "Korean-type war."

The two powerful Cabinet members contended the presence of U.S. fighting troops would open the door for direct military intervention by Red China.

They held the sound policy for the U.S. to pursue in South Viet Nam is to deal with the internal conflict as a "political" rather than a "military" problem, and to seek a "political settlement" instead of enlarging the warring.

The Joint Chiefs of Staff based their stand on three main points:

U.S. PERSONNEL and installations throughout South Viet Nam are in an active zone of operations; North Viet Nam regular troops are definitely known to be increasingly infiltrating into South Viet Nam, and there is mounting evidence of extensive Communist activity to subvert South Viet Nam military forces.

Meetings Are The Life Blood Of Bureaucracy In Our System

NO BUREAUCRACY can run without meetings. They are the life blood of such a system as we have in our government. The slightest little problem calls for a meeting. The first meeting calls for a second, a third and so forth until the problem has been solved, and by that time, something else has come up which requires a meeting, thus starting the cycle all over again.

A little problem arose in Novato which could easily have been solved with a couple of well placed phone calls but. . . . It is the question of the number of fire plugs for the new Pleasant Valley School.

NOVATO FIRE CHIEF George Cavallero recommended two fire hydrants, one in the front and one in the rear of the building.

The State Allocations Board only approved money for one hydrant after the state fire marshall's office had checked the plans.

The North Marin County Water District, which usually follows the recommendations of the fire chief, refused to turn on the water until both hydrants were installed.

THE NOVATO Unified School District board refused to put in the second hydrant.

With the water district refusing water to the school and the board refusing to install the second hydrant, it called for a meeting of the board members and administrators of the water district and school district, to discuss it.

The result of this meeting was the calling of a second meeting with the fire commissioners and fire chief.

This meeting should result in the calling of a third meeting—this time with the directors and staff of the Marin County Humane Society to determine whether one or two fire hydrants are preferred by the dogs in the area.

HIGH SCHOOLS in Marin County have been reluctant to release the voting figures for candidates in school elections. The officials of the school have hidden under the idea that it would hurt their developing personalities if someone was to learn how popular or unpopular he was.

I think that the officials are not giving the students credit for being as mature as they are. The students, although they are not quite adults, have achieved enough maturity to be classified as young adults with a maturity that surprises many of their parents.

THIS WAS SHOWN in a story carried in the Novato High School paper, Hornet's Buzz of Jan. 29. This was a man-on-the-street type of story in which students were asked that if they knew in advance that election results were to be published, would it stop them from running for office.

Of the students answering the question in the paper, seven said that it would make a difference and 20 said that it would not make any difference to them.

So by far the majority of students felt that publishing election returns would not hinder their running in a school election. It would have been interesting to note the grade level of the seven who answered that it would make a difference.

THE OTHER DAY a big black hearse pulled up in front of the Novato Post Office. The driver went inside with a brusk business air.

This caused someone nearby to make this remark: "I wonder if he's going in to pick up the dead letters from the dead letter office."

20 YEARS AGO

A. R. O'Brien, Ukiah publisher, replaced William D. Hadeler of San Francisco as president of the Golden Gate Bridge and Highway District.

Analysis of Marinship records for 1944 revealed that workers had doubled their efficiency, cutting time for building tankers by one-half.

Federal Bureau of Investigation and sheriff's officers were investigating an explosive case — theft of 36 sticks of dynamite and more than 500 caps plus a hand detonator from the Hutchinson Co. quarry at Greenbrae.

Here Are A Few Conclusions That Anybody Can Jump To

NEW YORK (AP) — Jumping to conclusions:

It's easier to borrow money on a sunny than a rainy day. On a rainy day most people are so preoccupied with their own miseries they don't feel like helping anyone else.

THE QUICKEST way to get acquainted with a stranger is to ask him if he knows a cure for the hiccups.

The biggest creeps among sports fans are those who go to prize fights and those who like auto races. Secretly, most of them just want to see someone get hurt, and as kids they probably got a big thrill out of stepping on bugs.

Elderly bankers and middle-aged confidence men wear vests for the same reason — to gain an air of conservative respectability.

A WISE MAN never makes a bet after midnight — or a third martini.

Dinner always tastes better on days when you've paused to help a blind man cross the street on your way home.

Much of what passes for scholarship today is merely tedious gobbledygook and double-talk.

One of the best ways to allay the pangs of rheumatism is to listen to a movie star talk about her career. Both your legs soon grown numb.

IT'S A FUNNY thing about millionaires. They sometimes give the impression they have holes in their heads—but you never meet one with a hole in his pocket.

Football coaches disagree about many things, but they all are certain that no kid will ever make a really good fullback unless he has big feet.

One of the great research problems in the fashionable drinking set is what they can mix vodka with next. My suggestion is castor oil.

Guys with big expense accounts usually are chronically late in getting up their rent money for the landlord. They're also slow to pay on their grocery bills.

OFFICE BOYS NOW spend more time combing their hair than stenographers waste fixing their fingernails.

The joint income tax return has done more than Moses to wipe out philandering by married men. They no longer can hide the expenses of keeping up love nests.

Deck stewards on luxury liners are among the last to pull up a chair for their wives at dinner ashore.

Chauffeurs of rented limousines wear the same mournful expression, whether their passengers are going to a funeral, a wedding, or a race track.

Morals Trial Set

Trial of Dichard Leo Silva, 18, of 360 Bell Lane, Tamalpais Valley, charged with displaying himself in lewd manner before two young girls near the Tamalpais Valley School last Sept. 17, was scheduled yesterday in Marin Superior Court for March 23.

Hospital Employees Given Service Pins

Pins commemorating 10 years of service were awarded to 10 Marin General Hospital employees, with pins for five years service going to 12 others, at a luncheon today in the hospital cafeteria. Marin Hospital District President Marion C. Ibach made the presentations.

Ten-year pins went to Sophia Backofen, Josephine Beyman, Margaret Forde, James Maxey, Eugenia Purcell and Francine Vieites of nursing; Helen Clark and Catherine Terrell, laundry; Ester Holland, housekeeping, and Thelma Keever, dietary.

First Bloc:. Festival Scheduled At College

ERNEST BLOCH
Musical honors planned

The first known festival on the West Coast, and perhaps the first anywhere, of the late Swiss-American Ernest Bloch's works will be presented at College of Marin in April.

Two concerts are planned — on April 3 at 8:30 p.m. and on April 11 at 8 p.m. in the college's new gymnasium.

The Oakland Chamber Orchestra, conducted by Gerhard Samuel and featuring pianist Istvan Nadas, will perform Bloch's works for piano and chamber orchestra on April 3.

On April 11 West Coast premieres will be performed of two Bloch chamber music works: "Suite No. 3 for Cello Unaccompanied," played by Bonnie Hampton, and "Proclamation for Trumpet and Piano" with Edward Haug, trumpet, and William Corbett Jones, piano.

Also heard will be the seldom played "Suite for Viola and Piano" performed by George Wargo, viola, and Jones. Margery Tede, mezzo soprano, will sing selections from two early song cycles, "Poemes d'Automne" and "Historiettes au Crepuscule."

Bloch was the father of Mrs. Lucienne Bloch Dimitroff, longtime Mill Valley resident who until recently operated Dimitroff's art goods and picture framing store with her husband, Stephen.

The two concerts are sponsored by the College of Marin Concert and Lecture Series committee and by a trust fund grant from Local 6, American Federation of Musicians.

Syndicate Buys More Tam Land

Purchase of 305 acres in the western part of Tamalpais Valley by a syndicate headed by John Fell Stevenson of San Francisco was disclosed today.

The land was purchased from J. J. Souza of Muir Beach for approximately $200,000, reported Gilbert F. Allard of Brockmann Realty, Mill Valley, who handled the transaction.

It adjoins the 1,870-acre Brazil ranch, purchased by Stevenson and his associates last December for approximately $1,900,000. Together, the holdings total more than the Gulf Oil Co. acreage proposed for the city of Marincello, Allard pointed out.

The Brazil ranch, where Mr. and Mrs. Antonio Brazil are still residing, surrounds the Souza property on three sides. The Souza ranch extends from Shoreline Highway to a line near Muir Woods.

Stevenson is a son of Adlai E. Stevenson, U.S. ambassador to the United Nations and former presidential candidate. He and his associates have a study under way of possible uses of the vast West Marin acreage, Allard reported.

Clergyman Seeks School Board

Rev. Samuel Leon Banks Jr. of 59 Cole Drive, Marin City, has filed as a candidate for the Marin County Board of Education from trustee area five (Mill Valley and Sausalito School districts).

Board president Robert G. Randolph, who represents the area, announced last week that he will not seek re-election.

Joseph E. Tilt of 1200 Butterfield Road, Sleepy Hollow, has filed as a candidate for re-election to the San Anselmo School District board.

Hamilton Contracts For Roofs, Cleanup

A $62,827 contract has been awarded to Roofing Service and Supply Co. of San Rafael to repair the roofs of Wherry housing at Hamilton Air Force Base.

Twilight Janitorial Service of Vallejo was given a $19,910 contract for janitorial work in 27 buildings at Hamilton.

Sausalito Boy Refuses To Tell

Probation officers have released a 15-year-old Sausalito youth from juvenile hall after trying in vain to learn the names of persons the boy claimed had "pressured him to steal" from a Corte Madera drug store.

Juvenile hall duty officer Thomas Estes said the boy was cited to appear in juvenile court on a petty theft charge. Efforts to get to the heart of his story were fruitless.

Arrested by Corte Madera police Thursday, the boy was carrying a "shoplifting list," in someone else's handwriting. He said someone had forced him to steal, but would not say who. He was charged with stealing a can of spray enamel from the Thrifty Drug Store in Corte Madera.

Novato To Discuss Underground Lines

The Novato City Council will hold a sepcial meeting on underground utilities at 8 p.m. today in the Community House.

The Pacific Gas and Electric Co. will donate a film on underground utilities. Lawrence A. Coleman, director of public works, will have a proposed ordinance requiring underground utilities to present to the council for study.

Hub's New Recreation Boss Begins Job With Review

Andrew Snyder, San Anselmo's new director of parks and recreation, found himself immersed in a review of the city's recreation and parks facilities and potentials yesterday, his first day on the job.

Snyder, San Anselmo's first fulltime parks and recreation director, said he was "looking forward to the challenge" of the city's growing needs in his field.

Snyder is tall, black-haired, and Minnesota-born and reared. He spent the past four years as director of recreation and parks in Tehachapi, Kern County.

He started his career in St. Paul, Minn., as a recreation center director, after graduating from University of Minnesota. He then moved to Oakland and a job on that city's recreation staff. After two years in Oakland, Snyder moved to a job as superintendent of parks and recreation in Del Norte County, where he stayed for two years.

Snyder, who will be 31 in March, is married and has four children, three boys and a girl, the oldest four and one-half years old.

Today is Tuesday, Feb. 16, the 47th day of 1965 with 318 to follow.

The moon is approaching its last phase. The morning star is Mars. The evening star is Jupiter.

On this day in history:

In 1868, the Elks Club was founded to practice charity, justice, brotherly love and faithfulness.

In 1938, Austrian Chancellor Kurt von Schuschnigg bowed to Nazi pressure and agreed to admit Austrian Nazis into his cabinet.

In 1945, American paratroopers landed on Corregidor in the Philippines and planted the U.S. flag on a half-mile stretch of land.

In 1959, Fidel Castro took the oath of office as premier of Cuba following the collapse of the Batista regime.

A Thought for the Day — Gen. George Marshall said: "If man does find the solution for world peace it will be the most revolutionary reversal of his record we have ever known."

TIME AND TIDE

Department of Commerce, United States Coast Geodetic Survey, Western District headquarters. Times and heights of tides at San Francisco (Golden Gate):

The column of heights gives the elevation in feet of each tide above or below the plane of Coast Survey chart soundings. The depths are always additive to the chart depths unless preceded by a minus sign (-), when the numbers are subtracted from the depth given in the chart. Light-face type indicates a.m. times; bold-face type indicates p.m. times.

Rely On Your Opponents When Cards Won't Help

If you offer your guests a bite when the larder is empty they will often politely decline the offer.

You can't rely on politeness from your bridge opponents, but you can often rely on their good habits.

When Prof. Ivan Stakgold, of Northwestern University, played this hand in a recent tournament, he had to rely on his opponents instead of on the cards.

MATTER OF MATH

As a matter of mathematics, Stakgold's field, it was a sure thing that the cards could not be in favorable position.

East won two tricks and led a third diamond to make declarer ruff.

Stakgold knew the strength of East's diamonds from these tricks and knew that East could not also hold the ace of hearts since he had passed as dealer.

ACE OF HEARTS

How could the hand be made if West had the ace of hearts? There was no "legitimate" play to prevent the loss of two trump tricks, but psychology will sometimes rescue a mathematician in distress.

Stakgold calmly led the king of hearts from his hand. West naturally assumed that declarer had a suit headed by the king-queen.

In this situation it is usually good defense to refuse the first trump trick.

FIRST TRUMP

When West politiely declined the first trump trick, Stakgold continued with a low trump. West continued with his own plan. He stepped up with the ace of trumps, intending to land a third trump—usually a very shrewd defense.

In this case East dropped the queen of hearts with a cold "Thank you, partner." West's good habits limited the defenders to one trump trick and allowed declarer to make his contract.

You can't rely on professors to be absent-minded any more.

Marin City Services Program Ends

The Marin City program of the Marin Council of Community Services discontinued direct services to the community yesterday after being in operation more than five years.

The program, supported by Columbia Foundation and Rosenberg Foundation, both of San Francisco, is to remain in operation at least a month for a report to be made, according to Frederick D. Kerr of San Rafael, president of the community services board.

Mrs. Jacqueline Myles Smith, director of the program since its inception, will write the report, to be released early in May.

She has been assisted since Dec. 1, 1959 by two part-time secretaries, Mrs. Dorothy Sterne of Mill Valley and Mrs. Shirley Crabtree of San Rafael.

Objectives of the program were to forward racial integration, encourage economic integration, assist in development of positive relationships between the "new Marin City" and the wider community, and cooperate with social service agencies in providing services to Marin City.

Goat Naper Takes It Back

CHATTANOOGA, Tenn. (AP)—A Daytona, Tenn., youth trying to play a prank was charged with goat larceny and released from jail on the condition that he pay the cost of transporting the goat back to its owner.

The youth, Virgil Keylon, 19, was accused of taking the animal from an itinerant goat man, Chess McCartney. Keylon told Sessions Judge Jack Hargraves of the proposed prank.

McCartney travels across the country in a four-wheel cart pulled by 28 goats.

"The goats have taught me a lot in the past 30 years," he said. "They don't care how I smell or how I look.

"They trust me and have faith in me, and this is more than I can say about a lot of people."

Street Name Change On List

The Sausalito City Council will hear a request at its 8 o'clock meeting tonight to change the name of Olima Street between Nevada and Wateree streets to Buchanan Drive.

City Mgr. Charles A. Brown will report on proposed locations for a temporary police facility.

Howard Peek of 14 Lagoon Road, Belvedere, has requested the council to negotiate with Northwestern Pacific Railroad for railroad property in southern Marin with agreement for abandonment of the Puerto Suello tunnel.

Plan Hearing To Be Reset

The Marin County Planning Commission agreed yesterday to reset the dates for hearings on the West Marin Master Plan, originally scheduled for March 1 and April 15.

Commissioners decided to postpone the hearings after receiving a letter from the Marin Coast Chamber of Commerce requesting meetings on the plan in West Marin before the public hearings.

New dates for the hearings will be set after it is decided when staff members will meet with West Marin residents.

Afternoon Concert Set At Drake High

The Sir Francis Drake High School fine arts department will present its third afternoon concert Thursday at 3:15 p.m. in the school's Little Theater.

The presentation features students, faculty, and guest performers. Works by Haydn, Bach, Dubussy, Handel and Villa-Lobos will be included. Violinist Jim Shallenberger, a Drake graduate now attending University of California, will be featured.

HOW TO KEEP WELL

By DR. THEODORE R. VAN DELLEN

Treatment For Poor Circulation Offers Hope For Many Patients

A new technique for opening up hardened leg arteries was described by Drs. Charles T. Dotter and Melvin P. Judkins of the University of Oregon. They insert a catheter into the vessel and stretch the narrow segment mechanically. Six patients improved markedly, three were not benefitted, but none was worse for the experience. Those with gangrene had little to lose and much to gain; amputation was averted in four instances.

VAN DELLEN

The method does not require the talents of a specialized vascular surgeon. It is recommended only for overcoming arteriosclerotic narrowing and occlusions in the arteries of the leg. The procedure is an outgrowth of a method used by radiologists to visualize arteries (cine arteriography). They make an opening into the wall of the vessel and under fluoroscopic view thread a guiding catheter into the lumen of the artery. Contrast material is injected at intervals to visualize the site and severity of the narrowed or obstructed segments.

DRS. DOTTER and Judkins go a step further on reaching the obstruction. They pass a larger or dilating catheter over the guide catheter and advance it until it traverses the blocked part.

This stretches the narrowed segment, allowing more blood to flow through the artery. The entire procedure takes 15 to 20 minutes. No harm was done when they failed to stretch the vessel because the obstruction remained as before.

ONE PATIENT was an 82-year-old woman whose left lower extremity was cold and pulseless, with gangrene of the toes. Amputation was advised when the gangrene progressed up the foot. She refused surgery, but agreed to catheter dilatation. The procedure was carried out and the pulse returned as soon as the catheter was removed. Nine months have elapsed since the operation and she has been free of pain and able to do her housework. Time will tell whether good results will continue.

ON A PLATEAU

Mrs. J. M. writes: I went on a diet 14 weeks ago. I lost weight at first but not in recent weeks. Why the slowdown when the diet is the same?

REPLY

This is not unusual, especially when the original weight loss was caused by the elimination of water from the tissues. You need a further reduction in food and more exercise.

GOUT AND FOOD

E. K. writes: Are there any eating habits that will ward off a second attack of gout?

REPLY

There is more to gout than the type of food eaten. Our leaflet on this disease offers some dietary suggestions. Send stamped, self-addressed envelope for this leaflet.

OVARIAN CYSTS

L. L. writes: Is there a drug to shrink an ovarian cyst in a 20-year-old girl?

REPLY

Not to my knowledge. There are several types of ovarian cysts and additional information would be needed to answer your question intelligently.

MENINGITIS

K. W. writes: How is ordinary meningitis contracted?

REPLY

Like the common cold it begins in the throat but it then selects the membrane covering the brain and spinal cord.

SETTING THE DATE

Mrs. S. writes: Does the term "babies by appointment" refer to caesarean deliveries?

REPLY

Not necessarily, because physicians can induce labor at any time it is deemed necessary.

Today's Health Hint — Drink sufficient water each day.

A Couple Of Drinks A Day Still Prescribed By Medics

NEW YORK—Despite the advent of modern drugs, physicians still prescribe one of the oldest heart medicines—distilled spirits.

This is especially true in the case of persons with angina pectoris and hardening of the arteries—two of the most common heart and circulatory diseases in persons of middle age.

Many heart specialists even recommend a daily cocktail before dinner for persons past the age of 45, whether or not they have a heart ailment.

A growing number of physicians are prescribing vodka which, they say is more desirable therapeutically, depending on how thoroughly the vodka has been filtered free of congeners, a group of distillation by-product organic materials which can contribute to a variety of toxic reactions in many people.

Dr. H. M. Marvin of the Yale School of Medicine, and a former president of the American Heart Assn., in discussing the use of distilled spirits by heart patients says—

"Besides being a dilator of the arteries, a highball or two a day can serve as a valuable medicine. Moreover, in many patients it does much to relax nervous tension, lessen fatigue and make life pleasanter."

"For the middle aged and the elderly," says Dr. Peter J. Steincrohn in his book, "You Can Increase Your Heart Power," "experience has proved to me, moderate amounts of alcohol daily are often better than any other kind of medicine we doctors have in our little black bags. In specific instances, it is a valuable heart medicine."

Dr. Paul Dudley White, head of the National Advisory Heart Council and heart consultant to President Eisenhower says that an ounce or two of a distilled spirit "may give rapid relief from angina pectoris, usually in the course of a very few minutes" and adds that "many cardiologists will back that up."

Cigarette Sales Down In State

SACRAMENTO (AP) — Californians bought fewer cigarettes in 1964 than in 1963 despite a state population jump of 3 to 3½ per cent.

A board of equalization report released yesterday showed that cigarette consumption in California dropped from a per capita figure of 142 packages a person in 1963 to 137 packages in 1964.

The anticipated figures for 1964 distribution were off about 84 million because of the federal report linking cancer and cigarette smoking.

Seattle Boosters Suffer Sabotage

SEATTLE, Wash. (UPI)—The Chamber of Commerce here keeps trying to minimize Seattle's rainy reputation. The chamber didn't get much help from the fellow who recently posted a notice in a downtown hotel elevator.

"In case of sunshine, air-raid sirens will blow. Proceed immediately to shelter until 'All Cloudy' sounds."

Population Triples

BELGRADE (AP)—The capital of Yugoslavia now has 950,000 population. That is almost three times the city's population in 1940.

Tam's Scholarship Semi-Finalists Named

Semi-finalists in California scholarship competition at Tamalpais High School are John Elder, Elaine Robba, Karen Crosby, Ann Treverton, Richard Gilliam, Michael Hall, Kristina Koski, Frederica Judson, Linda Booze, Linda Hauser and Cynthia Hurley, all of Mill Valley, and Carl Schwarcz and Nancy Kahn of Sausalito.

Semi-finalists are selected on basis of scores on the scholastic aptitude test and they will now be screened as to their record of academic achievement and for financial need. Scholarships range from $250 to $1,500.

Italian Actors Bow To Ban On 'The Deputy'

ROME (AP) — A group of Italian actors bowed to a city government ban on "The Deputy" today after giving one performance of the controversial play behind the locked doors of a Rome bookstore.

The Rome prefecture banned the play by West German writer Rolf Hochhuth after the Vatican radio and newspaper attacked efforts by Gian Maria Volonte and a group of actors to stage the play. It questions whether Pope Pius XII did all he could to save the Jews from the Nazis.

In banning the play, the prefecture cited the 1929 Lateran Concordat, which established relations between the government of Italy and the Vatican State. It recognizes a special status for Rome as the center of Roman Catholicism and obliges the Italian state to protect the papacy from "public offense and injury."

Sweet potatoes are an excellent source of vitamin A. If quickly cooked and served, they provide quantities of vitamin C also, the U.S. Department of Agriculture reports.

18th Century Music Due At Olney Hall

Music of the 18th Century will be performed in a free concert Thursday at 8 p.m. by the Bach to Mozart chambter group at College of Marin's Olney Hall.

The seven-member group will play three Handel arias, four Bach arias, The cantata "Was Gleicht Dem Adel Wahrer Christen," by G. P. Teleman, and three lighter songs by Henry Purcell.

The Bach to Mozart group was formed in 1959 as a recreational activity. The founder and director is oboist Raymond Duste, teacher at San Francisco State College and member of the San Francisco Symphony and Opera orchestras.

Carole Bogard, soprano, is a member of the Opera Comique in San Francisco. Baritone Edgard Jones teaches at Mills College.

Trumpeter Edward Haug is a member of the San Francisco Symphony and Opera orchestras. Ellen Dessler is principal cellist of the Carmel Bach Festival and assistant principal cellist of the Cabrillo Festival, Oakland Symphony and Chamber orchestras.

Frank Houser, violinist, is concertmaster of the San Francisco Opera Orchestra and associate concertmaster of the San Francisco Symphony Orchestra. He teaches at San Francisco State College. Harpsichordist Margaret Fabrizio has appeared at concerts and with orchestras and chamber groups from Los Angeles to Vancouver.

Wolfe Grade Session Set For Saturday

School, county and hospital officials have been called to a special meeting Saturday to discuss the proposed extension of Wolfe Grade from Sir Francis Drake Boulevard to Bon Air Bridge.

The meeting, scheduled by the board of the Kentfield Civic League, will start at 10 a.m. in the library of the Wolfe Grade School, with presentations by County Planning Director B. D. Dobbs and Public Works Director Donald R. Frost, both of whom favor the extension.

Invited to the meeting have been the Kentfield School District board and Supt. Howard C. Harmon, the Marin Hospital District board and Administrator William W. Turner, the Civic League board, Msgr. Edward M. Dullea, principal of Marin Catholic High School, Rev. John O'Connell of Saint Sebastian Parish, County Supervisor Ernest N. Kettenhofen and Planning Commissioner Niels Schultz Jr.

Following the presentations, the party will walk along the site of the proposed road, to run between Marin Catholic High School and Wolfe Grade School.

Three Seek Cuba Asylum

HAVANA (AP) — "We are tired with the way things are in the United States," said a spokesman for three American shrimp fishermen—all ex-convicts—who have asked for political asylum in Cuba.

The spokesman was Ernest Welch Bishop, 52, of Biloxi, Miss. He appeared at a news conference yesterday with the other two defectors, Dale Allen West, 28, and John Perry Clark, 20, both of Washington State.

The three said they intentionally beached a 57-foot shrimp boat which they had been hired to operate because "we wanted to live and work in Cuba." They sailed from Key West, Fla., Feb. 6 and went aground Feb. 10 off northwest Cuba.

Redwood Senior's Ideas Clashed With Those In Johannesburg

By POPPY EAGER
Redwood High School Student

Susan Christy, a senior at Redwood High School, found her ideas clashing with the South African policy of racial segregation during her year-long stay in Johannesburg.

The 60 per cent of the white South Africans of Dutch origin largely agree with the government policy, according to Miss Christy, but the 40 per cent of the English-speaking Africans mostly disagree with the apartheid policy.

"The races are completely separate. There is very little contact with the colored Africans other than domestic servants and those who work in the industries, and there is no opportunity for mixing of the races," said Miss Christy.

The family with whom she stayed in Johannesburg had four daughters: Elizabeth, 23; Vivian, 18; Patricia, 14, and Rosemarie, 12, and one older son who was married and lived in Durban, Africa. There was little difference between the African home and one in Marin, except that in Johannesburg there were three servants who seemed, according to Miss Christy, "almost a part of the family."

In August the family went on a week's vacation to Louincomarqus, an island off the coast of Mozambique, and spent two days in the Cougar National Game Reserve.

SUSAN CHRISTY
Sees apartheid first-hand

Wearing "the ugliest uniform in South Africa," Susan attended a small British private girls' school from Jan. 30 to Dec. 10. "The school was extremely formal," said Miss Christy. "We couldn't address the teachers by their names, but by madame."

Attending from 8 a.m. to 5 p.m., Miss Christy studied English, French, chemistry and physics (which counted as one course), South African history, and a mathematics course which included algebra, geometry and trigonometry.

"Twice a year, we took a very difficult examination where complete recall was necessary," she reported. "We started studying for these examinations about three weeks ahead of time."

Every day at 11 a.m. at the school, the students have tea and crackers or cake.

After her stay in Johannesburg, Miss Christy went on a three-week tour with 23 other United States American Field Service exchange students, with eight from California.

Traveling in a bus, it took them one week to get to Capetown. Next they went up the coast to Durban, where they spent four days and then traveled to Pretoria and then back to Johannesburg. They stayed with families during the trip. At one stop they stayed in a beach house which had no electricity, no toilet, and no hot water.

She arrived in the United States on Jan. 22 and stayed in New York for four days before coming home to Greenbrae and Redwood.

"When I arrived it seemed like I hadn't come home at all, but gone to another country to visit," exclaimed Miss Christy.

Dinah, Belafonte Plump Peace Corps

By RICK DU BROW

HOLLYWOOD (UPI) — The Peace Corps was the recipient last night of a one-hour musical salute by Dinah Shore and Harry Belafonte on ABC-TV. More than 100 corps volunteers, en route to Kenya and Uganda, were in the audience along with their boss, Sargent Shriver. The dialogue by Miss Shore and Belafonte about the corps was what one expected. Their music, however, was rare.

At the start, I got the willies when Miss Shore sang the most overworked song in the English language, "Getting To Know You," and did the handshaking bit with the audience. I am happy to report, however, that this sort of nonsense quickly subsided, and as she and Belafonte warmed to their singing, and were able to concentrate on it without too many pitches for the corps, they were just swell.

I don't know exactly what "just swell" means, but my understanding is that music should make one feel good and even temporarily elated, and that's what the singing of the two stars did to me. With a minimum of heavy-style production numbers, and a minimum of heavy-handed idealistic talk (thank heaven no one thought of calling Abby Mann to write the script), Miss Shore and Belafonte turned in a so-easy, so-relaxed, so-expert rendering of songs in various languages, singly and together, just sitting there, doing a few steps now and then, without exhibitionism.

Television, of course, can be a very powerful factor in helping the more remote gentlemen of a government. This Friday, for instance, ABC-TV will present its second special drama dealing with the work of the United Nations. Recently, NBC-TV's "Suspense Theatre" presented a two-part story in which Hugh O'Brian and Barbara Rush headed off the assassination of United Nations officials. Monday night's musical salute to the Peace Corps certainly won't do that organization any harm.

Belafonte, of course, is masterful as a showman, and it is about time he got some more specials of his own, though Miss Shore, to her credit, made last night's hour virtually a co-star production. Belafonte was on camera a tremendous amount of time.

Miss Shore, looking wonderful again, was magical in her treatment of a song I had never particularly identified with her style before—a Latin number. It seemed extremely suitable for her delivery, and established her again as an incomparable torch singer.

THE CHANNEL SWIM: Television will present live coverage of the scheduled Ranger Eight moon shot Wednesday, starting at noon EST . . . From a Hollywood show business trade paper: "They're gabbin' a 'Gone With The Wind' series."

Television Spotlight On Marin

Marin County will share the spotlight in a series of programs on KQED designed to raise money to keep the Bay Area's community-sponsored television station on the air.

Thursday at 9 p.m. the proposed city of Marincello will be discussed on "Profile: Bay Area," moderated by Caspar Weinberger. The program will be re-televised Monday, February 22, at 10:15 p.m.

Saturday at 6:30 p.m. film and narrative will describe "Marin: the Wilderness next Door," and the possible impact on the community of such projects as Marincello.

At 8:30 the same evening Marin County Board Supervisor Peter H. Behr, Independent-Journal city editor Bruce W. Anderson, County Planning Commissioner Margaret Azevedo, rancher George Wheelright, and Novato City Councilman William Jack Adams will join with Weinberger in a discussion of such problems as parklands, freeways, zoning and rapid transit.

Seashore Park Area Visited

MANTEO, N.C. (AP)—The Cape Hatteras National Seashore Park, this country's first publicly owned oceanside recreational area, had 1,070,535 visitors in 1964.

National Park Service Supt. Karl T. Gilbert said the number of visitors increased 22.8 per cent over 1964.

"This was the largest number to visit this seashore recreation area," Gilbert said, "since it was created during the early 1950s."

Moot Legislature Hears Marinites

Marin's delegation to the YMCA model legislature in Sacramento made its mark at the session, despite the fact that the bill it sponsored failed to get out of committee.

All regular members of the delegation had a chance to join in debate and two in particular drew rounds of applause for their speeches. The two were Sen. William Niccolls of Ross, who spoke against abolishing capital punishment, and Assemblyman Christopher Taylor of San Rafael, who spoke favoring repeal of Proposition 14.

The Marin delegation's bill would have required that referendum initiatives would require the votes of one-fourth of the Senate and one-fourth of the Assembly before getting on the ballot.

Real Cool Dog Has Soft Time

ST. PETERSBURG, Fla. (AP)—Columnist Paul Davis of the St. Petersburg Independent tells of this statement overheard in neighboring Pinellas Park:

"Here I was sweating it out in my old car on the way to pick up our dog who's been vacationing in an air-conditioned kennel."

Ancient Governor's Home Refurbished

SACRAMENTO (AP) — The cracked and peeling paint is gone from Gov. Brown's bedroom and there's new wallpaper in the parlor where he relaxes in an easy chair with the newspaper each night.

But the bright Victorian decor of the refurbished Executive Mansion hasn't interfered with Brown's unique method of disposing of the papers he has read.

"He used to be a paper boy, you know," said his wife, Bernice. "So whenever he finishes a section, he rolls it up like a newspaper boy does and throws it in the fire place. It makes a resounding thump.

"Then he looks over at me for approval."

Mrs. Brown told of home life at the Executive Mansion as she showed off the just-finished redecorating job at the 88-year-old relic of the west's gilded age.

It cost more than $9,000 to put new wallpaper and paint in the downstairs parlors, dining room and music room and to face lift the spacious second floor bedrooms occupied by the governor and his wife.

The fire marshall still insists the place is a fire trap. He won't even let the Browns use the six Italian marble fire places downstairs because of the danger.

And California's first family would still have to scramble to safety on a rope fire escape if the old house ever caught fire.

But at least the inside has been restored to that elegant Victorian look that merchant Joseph Steffens—father of journalist Lincoln Steffens — might have had in mind when he lived there in the late 19th century.

Downstairs, the wallpaper put on by then Gov. Earl Warren's wife has been replaced. Now, there is gold and white flocked wallpaper—paper specked with felt-like material. Up on the almost 20-foot high ceilings, gold leaf trim contrasts with off-white paint.

On the walls, hang paintings of old-time Californians, on loan from museums.

With the paintings and everything else, Mrs. Brown believes the downstairs looks warm, friendly and pretty—much better than it did in 1943 when Mrs. Warren took over the place from Widower Gov. Culbert Olsen, who had lived there off and on.

"The first time Mrs. Warren moved in, she told me she sat down in the middle of the floor and cried," said Mrs. Brown.

Before the remodeling, the upstairs bedrooms walls were cracked and peeling from the vibration of the steady stream of trucks on the busy street below.

Daughter Kathleen hasn't been as lucky. Her bedroom walls are still slightly shabby, decorated with a big California - Stanford football rally poster and some other college girl souvenirs.

State officials approved the redecoration after it became clear the legislature wasn't going to permit construction of a new mansion in the immediate future.

Organized tours can take a look at the downstairs occasionally, if they have made prior arrangements. But not at night or on weekends — or when the Browns are baby - sitting with their small grandchildren.

"It's a living house, not really a showplace," Mrs. Brown said.
